Judges Ponder Legality Of Injunction In Strike

'Good Faith' Bargaining Is Directed

Union Calls Wage Policy Committee To Pittsburgh Talks

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The steel strike, already costing billions of dollars, moved into its 101st day today as three federal judges pondered the legality of the government's back-to-work injunction.

The legal truce, prompted by arguments Thursday on the injunction appeal, will extend into early next week.

The union contended the injunction, granted Wednesday by a U.S. District Court judge in Pittsburgh, is unconstitutional and asked that it be canceled. The chief argument: It would halt the strike for 80 days but wouldn't settle it.

The government, however, said Thursday the continuing long walkout endangered the health and safety of the nation, and that a Taft-Hartley injunction was necessary to prevent wrecking of America's economy.

The judges—Chief Judge John Biggs Jr., Herbert F. Goodrich and William Hastie—delayed enforcement of the injunction until they rule on its legality "early next week"—probably Monday or Tuesday.

But the court, mindful of the seriousness of the situation, directed that the union and steel industry "engage in free collective bargaining in good faith" and "make every effort to adjust and settle their differences."

Leaders of the giant Steelworkers Union promptly accepted the court mandate. They assembled the 171-member wage policy committee in Pittsburgh today to discuss the next step in the nationwide controversy that has closed 310 steel plants, 108 ore mines and 11 transport facilities in 32 states.

Union President David J. McDonald, who sat through Thursday's four-hour court session, said he would comply with the court order. So did spokesmen for management. Yet no negotiating session has been arranged.

The Eisenhower administration had no immediate plans for new settlement attempts. A Department of Labor spokesman said "there's nothing we can do" until the circuit court rules.

The Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service said it will step in only if the injunction is upheld. The strike's effects have been devastating. Losses in wages, business and taxes have rocketed past five billion dollars.

Alternatives Revealed In Strike Litigation

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — What happens next is the question about the involved steel strike litigation. Here are the alternatives based on next week's decision in the case by the U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals:

If the court vacates the strike-ending injunction issued Wednesday by Judge Herbert P. Sorg of U. S. District Court, the union will be free to keep its members on strike. The government undoubtedly will appeal to the U.S. Supreme Court.

Should the court uphold the Sorg order it could permit a stay of execution pending an almost certain United Steelworkers Union appeal to the U. S. Supreme Court. If a stay is not included in such an order, the union could immediately petition the Supreme Court for such an order.

One thing appears certain, the Circuit Court order will not settle the issue. The matter obviously is going to the Supreme Court.

Soldiers Kill Lawman

TEGUCIGALPA, Honduras (AP) — A truckload of soldiers opened fire Thursday on a police patrol after their driver was halted for a traffic violation. A police sergeant was killed and three policemen and two soldiers were wounded before police, aided by civilians, captured the group of soldiers.

Michigan Puts Tight Rein On Purse Strings

Faces New Crisis After Court Rules Out 1% Use Tax

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — State officials tightened strings on a nearly empty purse today and hoped the Legislature would come up soon with a source of needed funds.

The state faced a new cash crisis as result of a Michigan Supreme Court decision Thursday knocking out a one per cent use tax designed to raise 10 million dollars and wipe out an 80 million dollar state deficit.

The state administrative board cut out virtually all out-of-state travel by state employees, filling of job vacancies and all but emergency purchases of supplies.

Democratic Gov. G. Mennen Williams was due back from a four-week vacation abroad to take on the Republican-controlled Legislature in a new tax battle.

The court split 5-3 in ruling that the use tax was basically a sales tax increase in disguise and to be valid would have to be submitted to popular vote. Earlier this year Republicans sought to do this but were blocked by Democrats who demanded a state income tax.

Michigan has a three per cent sales tax, the maximum that can be levied under the state constitution. The use tax would have raised the tax to four per cent.

Before it was knocked out, the use tax raised 14 million dollars. The state revenue department estimated that 40 per cent of this might have to be refunded. But red tape was expected to discourage many taxpayers from attempting to collect.

The Legislature, which has been in a marathon session since January, will reconvene next Thursday to tackle the tax problem again. Republican leaders have gone to work on alternative proposals.

Rainy Spell To Usher In Weekend Weather

Temperatures will bounce the next few days but showers or thundershowers late this afternoon and tonight and the mercury will range up to 72 to 76. Tonight's low will be 50 to 55. Saturday will be windy and cooler after a few forenoon showers.

A slow warming trend will begin Monday, becoming rather mild again Wednesday, the Ohio forecaster said.

CASTRO RECEIVES SUPPORT. A street scene in Havana shows some of the thousands who participated in a one-hour symbolic work stoppage Thursday to demonstrate support of the Castro government and protesting events in which 2 were killed and more than 50 wounded by stray bullets from a mystery plane which dropped anti-government leaflets over Havana. The government claimed the plane was based in the United States. (UPI Telephoto)

Cuba Head Warns He'll Form Militia

HAVANA (AP) — Fidel Castro of his officers in protest against Communist influence in Castro's movement.

A few hours before the telecast, the Prime Minister's bodyguard seized a drunken, knife-carrying Cuban factory worker at a street-corner demonstration around Castro on the cry of a teen-ager that "that man has a knife! He is going to kill Fidel!"

Police hustled the man away from the angry mob for questioning on whether he was bent on assassination. Hours later police said the man, a 44-year-old upholsterer named Robert Salas Hernandez, would appear for a court examination today. No charges had been filed against him.

Authorities said Salas, when seized, said, "This is an injustice; I am a supporter of Fidel." Castro told the television audience he didn't think Salas planned to attack him.

Charging that the two mystery planes showered Havana on Wednesday with leaflets attacking his regime, anti-Castro gangs roared through the capital in cars throwing small bombs and grenades, and the revolutionary army's commander in Camaguey Province resigned along with 30

Developed It 3 Years Ago

Ike Braves Chilly Weather Despite Bronchial Ailment

AUGUSTA, Ga. (AP) — For a man who says he has chronic bronchitis, President Eisenhower doesn't seem to mind getting out in raw, chilly weather.

It was that kind of weather Thursday afternoon when Eisenhower played the Augusta National Golf course.

He did so a few hours after telling a news conference here he developed bronchitis almost three years ago "and it seems to have become chronic."

White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said, however, that he didn't think Eisenhower had run any risk to his health. Early last month the President caught a cold which in time made him miserable. On Sept. 30 he went to Palm Springs, Calif., on the recommendation of his doctor, and stayed in that dry climate until Oct. 8.

At his news conference Thursday, Eisenhower—who since 1955 has suffered a heart attack, ileitis and a minor stroke—was questioned about his cold, and replied:

"Well, actually, almost three years ago I contracted a bronchitis which finally seems to have developed and become chronic. And so every slight cold has a sort of multiplied effect on me, and consequently I seek the warm weather and sun."

Then he startled reporters by saying that when he went to Palm Springs he not only had an acute cold but a flu attack on top of it. Flu had never been mentioned by the White House.

"I called it flu," Eisenhower chuckled. "Whether the doctor did or not, I don't think I ever asked him."

"Any time I feel as badly as I did that time, I call it flu, that's all."

Ballots Waited From Printer By Vote Board

County Distribution Of Polling Supplies To Begin Next Week

Ballots that will be used in East Liverpool and Wellsville precincts at the Nov. 3 general election are scheduled to be delivered to the County Election Board office here Saturday by the Dodge Publishing Co. of Salem.

The Salem concern, which holds the contract to furnish the ballots, will make deliveries for the northern county area Monday at the Courthouse in Lisbon.

Delivery of the ballots will clear the way for the Election Board staff to pack the ballots and other precinct supplies into suitcases to be passed on to each polling place.

The board is scheduled to distribute the ballots and other supplies to presiding judges from the northern county area Saturday, Oct. 31, from 9 a. m. to noon at its office in the Courthouse. Those for East Liverpool will be handed out Monday, Nov. 2, from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. at the board's office on W. 6th St. Wellsville precinct supplies will be distributed Nov. 2 at 6:45 p. m. at Wellsville City Hall.

Long-drawn-out court fights over three proposed constitutional amendments have posed continuing problems for the board in its preparations for the election. Huge ballots listing the three proposals already have been printed. One of the three questions — the so-called "metropolitan federation amendment" — was knocked out in a ruling issued by the State Supreme Court in mid-week. As things stand at present, the other two may be voted upon, but their fate also depends upon a Supreme Court ruling.

Council Action Set To Shift Bus Franchise

Council will meet this afternoon at 4 to act on transfer of the franchise for East End and Midland bus service from the Holtz Transportation Co. to the Tri-State Transit Co., clearing the way for a change in ownership.

President B. E. Warner, who called the special meeting, said the action will be informal in case the necessary legislation has not been drafted. But if the transfer is approved, the action will be sufficient for Tri-State to take over the runs, he said.

Andrew H. Holtz, operator of Holtz Transportation, signed an agreement Tuesday night to sell the two runs to John R. Campbell and Donald W. Barnes, owners of the Chester-Newell line. Holtz acted after Council Monday night took the first steps toward revoking his franchise.

U.S. Studies Timetable On Summit Talks

DeGaulle Cuts Rush To Negotiate With Premier Of Russia

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.S. officials are talking about a new summit conference timetable now that French President Charles de Gaulle has slowed the rush to negotiate with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

At the moment the outlook, as State Department authorities see it, is this:

1. A Western summit meeting in early December just before the scheduled session of NATO foreign ministers opening Dec. 15. This would bring together President Eisenhower, De Gaulle, British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan and West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer.

2. An East-West summit conference at Geneva probably in March although present speculation also includes February and April as possible meeting months.

The Geneva session would bring together Khrushchev, Eisenhower, Macmillan and De Gaulle.

Between these two heads of government meetings there would be time for detailed planning of Germany, disarmament questions and other issues which the East-West negotiations may take up.

In the meantime, some further development of East-West understanding may result from the projected visit to France of Khrushchev for talks with De Gaulle. These talks presumably will be similar in nature to his Camp David discussions with President Eisenhower last month.

Eisenhower told a news conference at Augusta, Ga., Thursday that he favored an East-West summit meeting by the end of this year but made clear he had not insisted on it. At one point, it is understood, Dec. 7 was suggested to Macmillan and De Gaulle as a target date.

Macmillan wanted the session as soon as possible. But De Gaulle insisted in correspondence with the President and Prime Minister that there must be very careful preparations of Western policies so that the three would deal with Khrushchev from common positions. The French government said it favored an East-West meeting next spring.

There is considerable speculation here that De Gaulle may also have had other considerations in mind. He may have wanted to arrange the Khrushchev visit to France prior to formal East-West negotiations. He may also have wanted more time in which to increase French prestige by developing a nuclear weapons device in the Sahara Desert.

You Get Back Hour Of Sleep As DST Ends

"Turn back, oh, time, in thy flight."

Well, turn back an hour, at least. That's what Tri-State District residents should remember before they retire Saturday night — Daylight Saving Time comes to an end Sunday officially at 2 a. m.

A number of communities switched from the slow time Sept. 27, creating a month of confusion, but everyone will be back in step after Sunday. Eastern Standard Time will rule until next April.

Clocks should be turned back an hour to regain that hour of sleep lost last April. Clocks were turned ahead April 26 when virtually all of the Eastern section of the country went to DST for the summer.

Unless you still are up for the late, late, late TV movie Sunday at 2 a. m., then you should adjust the household clocks before going to bed tomorrow night, otherwise you'll arrive late for church or any other engagements Sabbath Day.

Youth Injured Badly By Bike

Youngster Struck By Wheel Carrying 2

A Westfield Rd. boy, injured when struck by a bicycle near his home Thursday afternoon, is in "critical" condition today at City Hospital, while a Glenmoor youth is in "fair" condition at a Youngstown hospital with injuries received in a fall on a bike.

Thomas Powell, 6, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Lockhart of Westfield Rd., suffered multiple lacerations of the face, forehead and scalp when hit by a bicycle while he was walking home from school yesterday afternoon.

The first grade student at La-Croft School was walking down the steep hill near his home when two older boys on the bike also descended the hill.

Witnesses reported the bike swerved on the narrow road and hit the youngster.

David Lockhart, 9, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Lockhart of the Cannons Mills Rd., was transferred last night from City Hospital to Youngstown South Side Hospital for further examination of a head injury suffered while cycling.

The third grade student at Glenmoor School fell from his bike near his home yesterday afternoon, and was admitted to City Hospital for abrasions of the right side of the head.

U.N. To Hear Italy Plea On Disarmament

Ambassador Ortona To Spell Out Plan For Political Unit

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Italy is slated to issue an appeal for East-West agreement on disarmament by stages before the U.N. today.

Italian Ambassador Egidio Ortona is expected to spell out the proposal before the General Assembly's 82-nation political committee, now in the second week of its marathon arms debate.

The plan is reportedly based on five principles:

1. Disarmament, must be achieved by successive and gradual steps.

2. Any arms agreement will have to provide at every stage for appropriate international control.

3. Disarmament in conventional weapons must take place concurrently with disarmament in nuclear weapons.

4. Any substantial progress in disarmament must be accompanied by security agreements.

5. Any arms agreement must be preceded by a truce on propaganda if the pact is to be full and lasting.

Italy is a member of the new 10-nation East-West committee which begins disarmament discussions in Geneva in February. Her representatives have been taking part in behind-the-scenes efforts to bring the Soviet Union and the West together on the arms issue.

The United States and the Soviet Union have been maneuvering toward agreement on a resolution which would contain recommendations to the 10-nation Geneva conference.

Informed sources said the Soviets have sent on to Moscow the latest U.S. suggestions on the wording of the resolution and expect a reply late today or Saturday.

The Soviets have been insisting that the resolution endorse Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's plan for total disarmament.

Jury Convicts Truck Driver For 2 Deaths

LISBON — Jack W. Barton, 21, of Fremont was found guilty Thursday afternoon by a Common Pleas Court jury in the traffic manslaughter deaths of Frank Cameron, 64, and his son, William Cameron, 42, both of Lisbon R. D. 3.

The jury deliberated an hour in reaching the verdict.

He was found guilty on two charges.

Judge Joel H. Sharp deferred sentencing to allow the customary wait of three days in case a new trial is asked.

The state claimed in the two-day trial that the truck driven by defendant went left of center and struck the Cameron car. The defendant alleged that his brakes failed, causing the truck to veer into the other lane. The accident occurred May 16 on Route 7 near Williamsport.

Club Meets At Salineville

Mrs. Shirley Hart of Monroe Heights, Salineville, was hostess to her bridge club Wednesday night when prizes were won by Mrs. Faye Madison, Mrs. Marilyn Solak and Mrs. Olive Dorrance.

Lunch was served by the hostess. The next meeting will be Nov. 18 with Mrs. Solak.

Allen Richardson, son of Mrs. Millie Richardson Maher of the Lisbon Rd., has been elected secretary of the freshman Student Senate at Ohio State University at Columbus. He is also a registered Ohio High School football official after passing a recent examination.

Mrs. Leslie Ellis and son of Summitville visited Salineville Wednesday.

Mrs. Edith Beadle of West End has returned from a visit at Canton.

Mrs. Joyce Leek of West End spent the weekend at Dundee, Pa.

The Salineville Ministers Fellowship will meet Nov. 9 at the Presbyterian Church to further plans for community religious projects. The group met Monday with the Rev. James A. McCollum of the United Presbyterian Church, host because of the illness of the Rev. William Buell of the Methodist Church.

Group At Citadel To Attend Session

50 Schools To Get Data

Instructions Will Be Issued For Science Fair

Instructions for the 1960 Tri-State Science Fair were approved at a meeting of representatives of sponsoring organizations and the Advisory Board Wednesday afternoon in the conference room at the Review.

Black, district superintendent for the Ohio Power Co. who is chairman of the board, and Supt. Ralph Betts, schools.

Miss Frances Jones, librarian, at the Carnegie Public Library, said instructions will be printed this week and mailed to some 50 schools in the district for the fair to be held the week of March 5.

The district includes Columbiana, Jefferson and Hancock Counties and parts of Beaver County.

The group, which also discussed raising a fund for awards, expects to offer greater awards than last year or in excess of $500 with the top prize, $100 cash, she said.

A fund raising campaign for the awards will be started in about 10 days through the Chamber of Commerce with Black as chairman.

Board members attending the meeting also were Sidney Porter Jr. of the Globe Brick Co., Reed Campbell of the Ferro Corp., Mrs. Paul Allmon of the Nurses' Alumnae Association, C. V. Hughes, business manager of the Review and Arthur Simmers of radio station WOHL. Dr. Hodge Bailey represents the City Hospital medical staff.

Prosecutor Says County Obligated For Sheriff Funds

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP)—The Butler County prosecutor believes the county is obligated to provide the funds Sheriff Paul Pell says he must have in order to maintain regular services of his office during the last two months of the year.

Prosecutor Robert Marrs gave the opinion Thursday in the squabble between Pell, a Republican, and the Democratic majority on the Board of Commissioners.

Pell has claimed he needs an additional $12,000 if he is to maintain general police work, traffic control and life squad services during November and December.

Democratic Commissioners Gordon Augspurger and Arthur Reiff have refused to make the money available, claiming Pell refused to heed warnings that he would have to operate within his budget.

Marrs said it is his opinion the county's obligation to provide the money stems from a section of the law which says the sheriff "may call to his aid such persons or power of the county as is necessary" to perform his duties.

In fact, Marrs added that Pell might subject himself to an ouster action if he curtails his staff to such an extent that he cannot perform all of the duties of the office.

Pell has said he will have to lay off 18 deputies Nov. 1 if the extra money is not forthcoming. That would leave him with four deputies.

Pottery On West Coast Joins Ranks Of IBOP

Employees of the Western Pottery Co., Inc., at Hollydale, Calif., have been issued a charter for Local 307, newest subordinate union in the International Brotherhood of Operative Potters.

The IBOP, announcing formation of the new local, said the workers voted 3-to-1 for the Brotherhood as collective bargaining representative in an election conducted by the NLRB. It said William Rail of Huntington Park, Calif., international 10th vice president, and representatives of the new union have opened negotiations with the company to draft a working agreement.

Ohio Families Will Be Asked To Build Own Fallout Shelters

WASHINGTON (AP)—During the next 60 days one million Ohio families will be asked to build their own nuclear fallout shelters.

Jack Gault of Cincinnati, executive director of the Ohio Valley Civil Defense Authority, disclosed this today. He has been attending a meeting of Civil Defense officials here.

He said in an interview that one million pamphlets, titled "The Family Fallout Shelter," and containing detailed building instructions, will be mailed in Ohio within two months. More pamphlets will be distributed in Ohio later.

Asked how much the shelters will cost, Gault said: "$200 if you build one yourself; $1,000 if you have it built."

Asked whether he thinks many Ohioans will spend their own money on the shelters, Gault replied: "A lot of people will build them if you give them a logical reason."

"In my own area, I'll tell them: 'It is necessary to preserve you and your family—not to prepare yourself for war but to prevent war.'"

By that, he said he meant that the shelters are a necessary preventive to war as much as a war.

Woman Receives Cut Carrying Jars

A Chester area woman cut in a fall while carrying jars was treated at City Hospital Thursday, along with another woman and two youngsters hurt in separate mishaps.

Mrs. Myrtle Lilly of Chester R. D. 1 suffered lacerations of the right hand and wrist when she fell while carrying glass jars to the cellar.

Mrs. Thelma Duffy, 1736 Holiday St., was treated for an elbow injury received when she tripped and fell on the sidewalk of Globe St.

Richard Spencer, 2, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shroades of Chester R. D. 1, was treated last night for a cut of the chin received in a fall while playing at home.

Allan Six, 9, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Six of New Cumberland R. D. 1, suffered an injury of the right foot while playing at school.

Woman In California, Said To Be 110, Dies

MARTINEZ, Calif. (AP)—Paula Silvio, who claimed to be 110 years old, died Thursday.

Her daughter, Isabelle Castro, said Mrs. Silvio was active until six months ago and always insisted on washing the dishes.

"In all her life she had been to a doctor only twice, and had never swallowed a pill," said Mrs. Castro.

Mrs. Silvio dated her birth from the feast of St. Peter and Paul, June 29, 1849.

She was a native of Mexico. She came to Martinez in 1920 but never learned English.

52 At Tea Held By GOP Women

Some 52 attended the Wellsville Women's Republican Club "open house" tea held Thursday afternoon at Platt's Tea Room. Mrs. Letha Asby of Salem, 18th District committee woman, spoke on party unity.

Mrs. Frances Morton, Columbiana County recorder, spoke briefly. Mrs. Mary Clark, city chairwoman, introduced out-of-town guests.

The social hour was presented by Mrs. Louise Brookman Taylor who introduced Mrs. Jane Kata in a group of vocal solos. Mrs. Louise Lawton, music director of Wellsville schools, gave a piano concert.

The tea table was arranged with a centerpiece of fall mums and silver candelabrum. A meeting to make plans for election day will be announced.

Trustees Silent On Dispute Over College President

WILMINGTON, Ohio (AP)—The Wilmington College Board of Trustees is keeping silent in the dispute over selection of a new president for the Quaker school.

Mason Roberts of Dayton, board chairman, disclosed Thursday that the board held a meeting Wednesday but his only comment was:

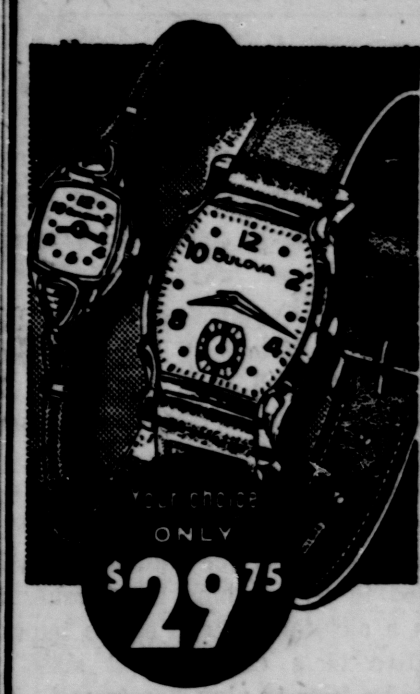

"We left the meeting very hopeful that this matter will be resolved. We feel that the issue can be worked out best with a minimum of publicity at this time."

The board earlier selected R. Richard Gottschalk of Syracuse, N. Y., to be president but the Wilmington Yearly Meeting of Friends, which operates the school, declined to approve him. The Yearly Meeting also questioned the right of the trustees to make the appointment.

Gottschalk, who already had come here to arrange for taking over the presidency, returned to Syracuse.

No Voodoo In The White House

Toward the end of the baseball season, one of the old-timers among the big league pitchers was talking about the hazards of his trade.

"You're not supposed to give the batter anything good to hit," he said. "So you try to keep the ball away from him. Then you walk him and the manager is sore about that. You can't win."

There's no winning voodoo in the White House, either.

A President of the United States isn't supposed to do anything that makes him look like a dictator, instead of the temporary executive of a constitutional state.

So he tries to play it safe and pitch to the outside corners, whereupon his critics scream that he should have brushed off the batters crowding the plate.

Beginning in Grover Cleveland's time, no U.S. president has licked the problem of industrial strife.

THE AMERICAN PEOPLE are supposed to have taken a shine to Calvin Coolidge for breaking a police strike in Boston, but a Coolidge would be lucky to get through the visitors' entrance of the White House today if he broke a police strike.

Herbert Hoover never got the benefit of a doubt from a labor leader.

Franklin D. Roosevelt had the illusion he could housebreak union leaders the way he thought he could housebreak Stalin. He was even willing to clear everything with Sidney Hillman to stay on the good side of the unionists. But Mr. Roosevelt knew before he died that he was playing a losing game; that he would be used or abused; that his union backers never would quit expecting him to be their puppet.

Harry Truman tried to be palsy-walsy with the unions, but it turned out to be terrible-tempered Harry who tried to draft coal miners into the U.S. Army so he could order them back into the pits as commander-in-chief.

Mr. Eisenhower, himself, once was so imbued with the idea he could get along with the unions that he put Martin P. Durkin, president of the Plumbers Union, into his Cabinet as secretary of labor. But Mr. Eisenhower learned what every other president has learned about unionism in relation to politics.

THERE IS NO magic formula that will guarantee harmony between a chief executive and union executives. A president takes an oath to serve all the people. A union executive draws his salary for looking after what he construes to be the best interest of his own minority.

If a chief executive throws his weight around to keep a strike from happening, he is said to be acting like a dictator.

If he doesn't yell and pound the table to stop a strike, on the other hand, he is accused of being a weakling.

If he finally uses the only law there is to protect all the people against part of the people, he is cursed out by people who wanted him to do nothing.

Or he is cursed at by people who thought he should have done it sooner or later, but not just now.

Everybody seems to be nursing the notion that President Eisenhower could have done something — anything — to save the country from the disaster of a long-drawn-out steel strike. Or that he should have done nothing.

It's no wonder he slipped down to Georgia for a few days. There must be times when the man in the White House gnaws his mental knuckles down to the wrist trying to figure out why his countrymen pull him and haul him as if he, not they, had thought up the hell-raising that makes his job what Mr. Truman insists it is — the toughest on earth.

Education's Fine; Taxation's Tough

Whether it's a question of giving the school administrators of New York City a half billion dollars of new capital to bring their educational plant up to date, or a proposal for raising education money in your own school district, a voter's problem is the same.

He must try to keep his thoughts in order about the issue.

He must try to be sure he is not confusing one question with another — and that isn't easy.

There are two questions.

One is education, which is fine. Everybody's for education.

The other is taxation. No one is for taxation.

In the confusion, people who oppose taxation sometimes find themselves being opposed to education, too, in order to drive home a point.

Similarly, people who believe in education and want to help it in every way can sometimes seem to be arguing in favor of taxation, which is not calculated to win converts.

THE ONLY WAY to avoid this kind of a criss-cross is to separate the questions.

First it should be established whether education would be helped by a proposal — whether it is needed for the operation of a school system. This is usually an easy point to establish.

The tax question, on the other hand, is difficult.

It is virtually impossible for any school district to raise the taxes it needs without substantial help from taxpayers who either have no children in school at the time or never had or expect to have children in school.

Unless they can be persuaded that they should be willing to pay the price of education with the parent group and the small minority of people who believe so devoutly in education they would pay any price it costs, proposals to raise education money get into trouble.

To the opponents of the proposals it may appear that they are being unduly taxed for a benefit they cannot take advantage of. This, especially, is a place to beware of confusion.

Everybody shares the benefit of education. It is not restricted to parents and children. As for the claim that taxpayers with no children are unduly taxed, that can be disposed of by the rebuttal that compulsory education presumes that society as a whole will underwrite the cost of public schools.

If education were to become private, its entire cost would be paid by parents and pupils. But in that event only the children of parents able to bear the cost would be given an education. No one wants to risk that.

THE COST of education is part of the price of progress in the United States. It is not too high in comparison to the benefits it makes possible. On a comparative basis, it is the republic's best bargain — better than national defense, certainly more essential than highways, clearly a better long-term investment than the cost of the appliances, luxuries and services that make Americans feel proud of their high standard of living.

Think twice about that education proposal in your school district this year. No matter what it costs, it's a bargain if it's needed. And if you want to know about that, any teacher, any administrator and almost any pupil can tell you what you need to know if you're willing to ask.

Jack Benny may go into history as the ace of talent scouts. No other comedian ever got an ex-president to team up with him on a TV show.

The striking fact was that it was done with taste. Mr. Truman lost nothing in dignity and yet managed to make the show fine entertainment.

Few presidents in history could have done the trick, but Harry has the homespun, neighborly, James Whitcomb Riley personality that made it all seem proper. The act made such a hit that there may be a Truman-Benny White House ticket, with Rochester as secretary of state.

NEW YORK WINDOW WASHERS have won a raise to around $115 a week. You've gotta admit they went to great "panes" to get it.

Five airplane carriers which stood the fury of Jap attacks in the Pacific have been sold to Japan as junk. (What price valor, anguish and patriotism?) The flatboats will be converted into Japanese products to help the economy but we think it makes Uncle Sam look cold-hearted and silly. How would you like to have your kid playing with Japanese toys made from heroic flatboats? And how would you react if you knew a Japanese cocktail tray had the blood of American sailors on it?

Sen. Case of New Jersey wants the Senate to act for safer truck driving following the Jersey bus tragedy. The driver who crashed into the loaded bus setting it afire is alleged to have been convicted of eight previous violations of law. Let's hope the Senate will not think it is solving matters by cutting permissible violations down to six.

The Dark Side

Hoffa Has Map Of Friends, Foes

By Victor Riesel

Little Jimmy Hoffa has a treasure map. And X's mark the spots where his opponents' political fortunes are buried. He keeps it neatly folded in his desk.

He consults it whenever he needs to make a decision. That's when one of the Teamster locals calls for a favor of some kind.

Out comes Victor Riesel the map. At a glance Jimmy can tell whether the local voted for or against him at the 1957 Teamster convention. To those who supported him, goes his support and favor.

Hoffa is taking no chances. He is planning a new convention so he can be elected the immovable president.

He is taking no chances, because this new convention is to be one of the most law abiding in the history of dues takers.

He is deluging his locals and their leaders with long forms and short ones asking if any criminals are on their lists. Hoffa is telling his people to obey the new labor reform law.

JIMMY WANTS to control all the delegates to the convention and he wants all the delegates to match every legal test. That is his new pattern for power. He knows he and his union are attracting more probes today than a TV quiz show.

There are 12 Federal Grand Juries looking into Teamster locals and leaders right now.

The investigators are using every bit of McClellan committee evidence. They're calling on the FBI. They're operating in such centers as New York, Pittsburgh, Philadelphia, Cleveland, Los Angeles, and Washington, D.C., the Justice Department informs me.

They're preparing new indictments to match the current 25 — which include 12 in the past few weeks.

The Teamsters have been hit with everything from contempt (judicial) to tax evasion and extortion. If these men are convicted, some of Hoffa's closest friends, allies and lieutenants — and there are sharp differences — will go up for terms of two to five years.

Far from weakening Hoffa, such prison terms for his aides will strengthen him. That's real-politik and Jimmy Hoffa is the greatest real-politik of all. First, such convictions will give the public the impression that the Teamsters have been cleaned up.

Secondly, there will be a vacuum wherever one of the local chiefs is made a guest of the government.

LOOK AT OHIO, for example. There the iron hand on the wheel is that of Bill Presser. He is president of Cleveland Local 555. He is president of Cleveland Joint Council 41. He is head of the Ohio Teamsters. Everything rolling through that state, except in the Cincinnati area, needs one of Presser's drivers.

Now he has been indicted by the Federal government for refusing to tell the McClellan committee whether he destroyed his personal records after being subpoenaed. If convicted, he will be replaced by several men approved by Hoffa, of course, and all reporting directly to Jimmy. Not that Presser didn't but he was a power in his own muscled right.

Hoffa needs such power. It may appear that Jimmy boy is absolute monarch of all he surveys on his map. But those who know the Teamsters know that there are powerful local barons.

Some like New York's tough Johnny O'Rourke, head of the Teamster Council 16, don't jump when Jimmy whistles. They duck him.

Jimmy Hoffa hasn't swashbuckled into New York City for a long time. He respects O'Rourke's strength. Well, O'Rourke is now under indictment. If he is convicted, his power will be broken.

Remember that under the new labor law a man with a record can't be bonded. If he is not bonded, he is automatically dropped from the labor movement. So each conviction is tantamount to permanent removal from office. It is as automatic as that.

So Hoffa is watching carefully for the strategic moment when he can call his new convention — re-elect himself and then defy all forces to remove him.

That's the story of Jimmy's little map.

Mr. K Unchanged

By Raymond Moley

The visit of Nikita Khrushchev, epochal as it might well be, has inspired the Pollyannas of international realtions to a happy state of sugar-coated statements. This writer, having attended his progress through the Middle West, ventures to offer some reason for caution.

These well-meaning people say that because Khrushchev has seen the prosperous homes of our industrial workers, his Marxist thinking is going to be all upset; the workers of America are not standing with burning eyes, fingers curling into ready fists, waiting for the moment to cast off their chains and overthrow capitalism.

The diagnosis of the visit, as made by these people, follows the line of thought that because Khrushchev has seen the material wealth of this country, he is wisely going to conclude that starting a war would be madness, because we are too rich.

The reasoning is this: Mr. K has seen us. Ergo, he is impressed. Ipso facto, he will think a long while before he carries this cold war nonsense much further.

Nothing could be farther from the truth.

THE AGILE, scheming brain that has enabled Nikita Khrushchev to mount ever upward over a sprawling pile of Soviet leaders to the eminence from where he rules over 200 million people is not a gullible brain.

The surface indicators of another culture are not likely to make much impression on that brain.

The intelligence system of the Russians, good enough to ferret out our atomic secrets, is certainly adequate to the task of reporting accurately our standard of living and the details of the economic structure on which that standard rests.

Khrushchev has long known we are a nation beyond compare in worldly goods. He certainly has known in detail the creature comforts of the average American home and how the owners of that home obtained those luxuries.

So indeed does he know that American labor is, in effect, one and the same with American capitalism.

The fact of stock ownership by the people who produce the goods is not unknown to Khrushchev. He knows that our labor force works under contracts containing benefits for labor that far exceed anything the Soviet state can offer its workers — benefits arrived at by negotiation.

Nikita Khrushchev did not come as a Messiah bound to convert the unbelievers to the great religion of Communism.

COMMUNISM is not a religion to Khrushchev. He came to this country with a far different idea in mind.

He came to this country to see for himself what he believes to be the locale of the next great irresistible surge in the sea of history. To Khrushchev, Communism is an inexorable fact.

Witness his unwillingness to arrive at a diplomatic condition that could result in war. He fears the destruction which nuclear war would bring not so much as he does any blocking of the movement that he believes to be inevitable.

Witness his unwillingness to yield suddenly on points on which his diplomats have been most obdurate, his sudden, unexplained vacillations of policy.

Khrushchev works for the unhindered flow of historical event. If war would slow it, war must not come. If stubbornness would delay, be amenable.

His remark, "My great-grandchildren will rule you," is illuminating. Khrushchev insists that he did not speak in a warlike sense.

"Great - grandchildren" means after two generations — 40 years. No geopolitician with the wealth of information available to Khrushchev would state that his country could conquer the world and hold it for 40 years.

He did mean that he believed in our downfall in two generations. To the dedicated Communist, this is a face of life — bigger, by far, than anything else.

This is the threat that we must meet squarely, with firmness and determination.

Through The Years

THIRTY YEARS AGO — John Hancock was elected president of the Emblem Club at an organizational meeting at the YMCA.

Secret Diplomacy

By David Lawrence

Russia, Red Chinese Have Uneasy Partnership

Secret diplomacy seems to be having its troubles. President Eisenhower and Soviet Premier Khrushchev have been exchanging letters since the latter's visit here and, while Berlin was their primary concern they have also discussed Red China's recent behavior in Tibet and India as well as its policy of force against the Nationalists in Formosa but the world knows little about the exact status of such things.

Is Mr. Khrushchev having trouble with his ally? Is the "peaceful coexistence" medicine to be applied or is tension in Asia to be increased?

Amidst all the speculation, Mr. Khrushchev has just announced that he supports the claim of the Red China government to Nationalist Formosa.

Does this mean he intends to keep on supplying munitions to the Chinese Communists for their war on Quemoy and Matsu and their eventual attacks on Formosa?

The Soviet Premier must know that the U.S. Congress, by joint resolution, authorized the use of American armed forces to defend Formosa and that, if the islands of Quemoy and Matsu are seized and used as a base for attacks on Formosa, the United States is duty bound to intervene by force.

To be discussing all this now seems strange, since only last month Mr. Khrushchev piously proclaimed that he and President Eisenhower had agreed that military force must be "renounced" as a means of settling international disputes.

HE DID IMPLY later that he didn't mean to bar a war of "liberation," which doubtless includes Formosa but excludes a similar right for the people of Hungary.

Perhaps the speech made this week in New York by Robert Murphy, undersecretary of state for political affairs, throws some light on the problem. He said:

"In the past we have had reason to link Moscow and Peiping in aggressive moves in Korea and Quemoy and Matsu. No doubt Ho Chi Minh (leader of North Vietnam Communist forces) consulted the Moscow leadership as well as Peiping before the Viet Minh launched the guerrilla attacks in northern Laos.

"Are the Russians entirely comfortable with these Chinese adventures in aggressive warfare if they believe one of them might be the spark of a much larger conflagration?"

"There is no doubt that publicly Mr. Khrushchev feels obliged to support Red China, no matter how outrageous its conduct might be. In Tibet, I would question that privately he would be happy over the world effect of this adventure in brutality or its impact on Indian public opinion.

"It is not always certain that Russian aspirations coincide with Chinese ambitions and methods.

"Some day this might become a most uneasy partnership. However, this day seems far in the future and in the present in which we must operate there is little doubt but that both Moscow and Peiping regard the continuation of their close alliance as being of overriding importance.

"Peiping in particular would be hard pressed to do without the assistance it receives from the Soviet Union.

"In turn this is a drain on the Soviet economy which delays the day when the Soviet people may achieve a better standard of living."

ODDLY ENOUGH Prime Minister Nehru of India, speaking this week at a news conference in Calcutta, charged that Communist China does not share Premier Khrushchev's desire for a thaw in the "cold war." He said:

"I have no doubt that Khrushchev wants peace. The same eagerness for peace is not present in China."

Mr. Nehru said also that Red China is anxious for more territory and that he thinks the attack on Indian territory by the Chinese Communists was a launched to counteract the Soviet Premier's peace offensive.

It is apparent that Mr. Khrushchev has his hands full regulating the conduct of a vast bureaucracy in Moscow and is not so adept at simultaneously controlling the Red China regime.

There has been considerable puzzlement throughout the world over the acts of aggression committed by the Red Chinese at the very time that the Soviet Premier has been trying to "ease tensions" in the "cold war."

Some observers theorize that Peiping is pulling away from Moscow but this doesn't seem plausible because of the great need that Red China has for the alliance with the Soviet Union.

A logical explanation is that two big Communist empires have had trouble co-ordinating their moves and desires at a time when the Soviet Premier is engaged in a complex negotiation with Britain, France and the United States with respect to Berlin and the problems of Europe.

MR. KHRUSHCHEV naturally doesn't want to see a flare up in the Far East at a time when he is impatient to go to a "summit" conference.

President De Gaulle of France is stalling on the idea of such a meeting now, while President Eisenhower and Prime Minister Macmillan would like to go ahead with it immediately.

Certainly the Soviet Premier is anxious to have the Red Chinese behave themselves for the time being at least. Then, if the "summit" meeting itself comes to naught, he has some cards to play by fomenting another crisis in the Far East as well as in Southeast Asia.

Cotton Corners

By Truman Twill

Dear Nephew: This has been the kind of a day to gladden a football player's heart — cool, sparkling, fragrant.

I can imagine that on such a day football players have nostalgic thoughts about butting heads again. That brings me to the thing that has been occupying my mind.

We never get anywhere when we go against the grain, do we? Even an unskilled woodworker like you knows you cannot get results unless you work with, not against, the grain.

It's the same as not trying to make silk purses out of sows' ears, except that I work both sides of the street with my axioms. You shouldn't try to make sows' ears out of silk purses, either.

Take football players and their followers.

For a while after Sputnik, it looked as if we were going to make scientists out of all the little sows' ears in our schools. Everybody talked about it. What we needed, they said, was more brain power. That's what they said, all right.

But they were scared. They weren't being themselves. They were going against their own grain. Who's "they"? Why, football players and their followers. Who else?

They're back to normal now. They aren't scared any more. I made one of my rare visits to a school board meeting this week and unexpectedly landed in the midst of a delegation of incensed natives demanding better football teams, with a more efficient "farm system."

At the height of the Sputnik scare, no one ever showed up at a school board meeting demanding that mathematics instruction, physics courses and the chemistry department be improved or else.

We are not going against the grain any more — not in this community. Maybe worry-warts are still conscience-stricken in some places because their academic program has holes in it. But here at the Corners the head-butters and their aficionados are not pretending to be something they never intend to be.

They are going with the grain. As far as they're concerned, America was carved out of the wilderness with axes, sledges and wedges, not theorems and precepts. A first down inside the opposition's 10-yard line is more exciting to them than the possibility that a gang of eggheads might figure out how to release the energy of hydrogen atoms systematically, thereby making sea water a limitless source of power.

It takes all kinds of people to make a proper world, and I suppose it's a good sign football victories seem more important than scientific break-throughs.

I do wish half as much interest might be shown in boosting the chemistry department in our school system, or even in making certain all our teachers had a working knowledge of the English language and were cooperating with one another to pass it along. But I am not naive enough to think it's likely to happen here.

This is football country, sub. From time to time we may produce an egghead, the same as a black cat can throw a gray kitten, but year in and year out the paramount aim in these parts is to hold up our end in head-butting.

Horace Mann have mercy on the soul of anyone who tries to cut across our grain! Your aunt says hello and to remind you she is a football aficionado all the way and never has been ashamed of it. She says if a showdown comes with Russia or China, we'll cut 'em down with superior pass patterns.

Regards to all.

Ballots

The constitutional amendment ballot is so huge that there may not be room in the suitcases for it when the board packs supplies for precincts in which a large number of other issues will be voted upon. In that event, precinct presiding judges who call for supplies may have to carry the large ballots under their arms as "excess baggage."

Elimination of the "metropolitan" federation amendment also posed another problem for the board. It was forced to send a supplemental letter of instruction to all precinct workers notifying them not to count or record the votes cast for or against the issue. If either or both of the other two proposals are knocked out in the continuing court fight, another letter of instructions will be necessary.

Meanwhile, the board has issued 153 civilian absentee and disabled voters' ballots for the general election, plus 22 to servicemen and civilians residing temporarily outside the United States.

The civilian absentee ballots are for persons who will be outside Columbiana County and at least 10 miles from their home precinct on election day. The disabled voters' ballots are for persons unable to get to the polls because of illness or infirmity.

9 Drivers Fined In Radar Arrests

NEW CUMBERLAND — Nine motorists nabbed Thursday in a radar speed trap of West Virginia State Police were fined a total of $100 and costs at hearings later before Squire John D. Herron.

A tenth motorist posted bond for a hearing later this month. Police operated the radar device on Route 2 south of New Cumberland in a crack-down on speeders traveling to and from Waterford Park race track.

Fined were James Hanna, 35, of Carnegie, Paul Lee, 59, and John C. Totten, 44, both of Pittsburgh, all $15 and costs each; John Chisnell, 58, of Gibsonia, Pa., James A. Weatherston, 31, of Wheeling, Joseph Fuller, 43, of New Cumberland, Phillip Laweey, 31, of Martins Ferry, Lawrence Duvall, 40, of Shadyside and Oliver Hurst Jr., 41, of Pittsburgh, all $10 and costs.

Horace H. Briggs, 61, of Newton, Pa., posted a $17.50 bond for an appearance before the squire next Thursday.

Chester Driver Cited After 2-Car Collision

A Chester area motorist was cited by Hancock County sheriff's deputies for driving left of center following a two-car collision Thursday night at 6:15 on Middle Run Rd.

Deputies said Richard Mey, 22, of Washington School Rd., struck the car of Mrs. Martha H. Scott, 58, of Richmond, Ohio, a school teacher.

Mey's auto drifted left of center as he was driving over the crest of a hill, deputies said. Total damage was estimated at $700.

Mrs. Scott was treated at City Hospital this morning for a bruised nose and skull injury suffered in the accident.

Mey was scheduled for a hearing before Squire John D. Herron of New Cumberland for driving left of center.

Grand Jury Will Get Weirton Burglary Case

WEIRTON — Leonard Brown, 21, of Weirton was bound over to the January term of the Hancock County Grand Jury at a hearing this morning in Municipal Court on charges of possession of stolen goods.

Brown was arrested by Pittsburgh police only a few hours after fleeing from the Weirton city jail Tuesday. Pittsburgh police held him on suspicion of a felony after finding him in a car with numerous pieces of clothing and appliances.

Brown's bond was set at $5,000. He is accused of breaking and entering a store where about $900 in clothing and appliances were taken, police said. He escaped from Weirton jail on foot, slipping past officers who were busy with another prisoner.

State Health Engineer Tours County Home

LISBON — Don Day, assistant engineer of the Northeastern Ohio Health District at Cuyahoga Falls, made an inspection of the Columbiana County Home Thursday and is expected to make his recommendations to the County Health Department which will forward them to the county commissioners and Supt. Russell Phillips.

Recommendations have already been made by the County Health Department to correct the water and milk situation at the home and work on improving the water supply is now in progress, Dr. C. S. Palmer, health commissioner, said.

35 Attend Salineville Booster Club Meeting

SALINEVILLE — About 35 attended a meeting of the Athletic Boosters Club Thursday night at the high school when a movie of the Salineville - Fairfield football game was screened.

Plans were made to film the Salineville-Wayne game Saturday afternoon at Salineville. The club will meet in special session next Thursday. The next regular meeting will be Nov. 5, after which meetings will be held the first Thursday of each month.

U.S. Hikes China Aid For Flood Recovery

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — U.S. Undersecretary of State C. Douglas Dillon today announced that the United States will give Nationalist China additional aid to help in the recovery from the great August flood.

Dillon flew to South Korea later after a three-day visit to Formosa.

LISBON — Ance Hill, 62, of Black's Rd., died Thursday at 1:30 p. m. at the Akron General Hospital, where he was a patient for a week. He had been in failing health a number of years.

Born April 9, 1897, in South Pittsburgh, Tenn., a son of Edward and Sofrona Hill, he lived in this vicinity for 35 years and was a molder. He was a member of the Zion African Methodist Episcopal Church and the Masonic Lodge of Salem.

Mr. Hill was married to Martha Howard in 1919 and she survives with three daughters, Misses Frances Jean Hill and Emma Hill, all at the home and Mrs. Marion Grimes of Lisbon; two sons, Richard Hill of Lisbon and Jack Pearl Hill, stationed at Otis Air Force Base at Falmouth, Mass.; three brothers, William Hill of Wellsville, James Hill and Joseph Hill of South Pittsburgh, and eight grandchildren.

Services will be held Monday at 1:30 p. m. at the Eells-Leggett Funeral Home by the Rev. Foster Lewis. Burial will be in Lisbon Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home Sunday from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9 p. m.

Striking Meat Packers Eye Vote On Pact

CHICAGO (AP)—Nearly 18,000 striking meat packing employees will vote this weekend whether to ratify a tentative contract agreement which would end their seven-week walkout against Swift & Co.

Ratification by a majority of the locals in 34 cities would give the workers a contract providing for wage increases from 8 1/2 to 15 cents an hour over a two-year period plus improved fringe benefits.

Announcement of the tentative agreement came Thursday night from the Federal Mediation and Conciliation service, whose conciliators sat in on negotiating sessions, and from officers of the two striking unions.

The unions are the United Packinghouse Workers of America, which represents 13,000 workers, and the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen, representing 5,000 workers.

For most Swift workers the wage increases would be the same as those the unions negotiated in contracts with other major meat packers.

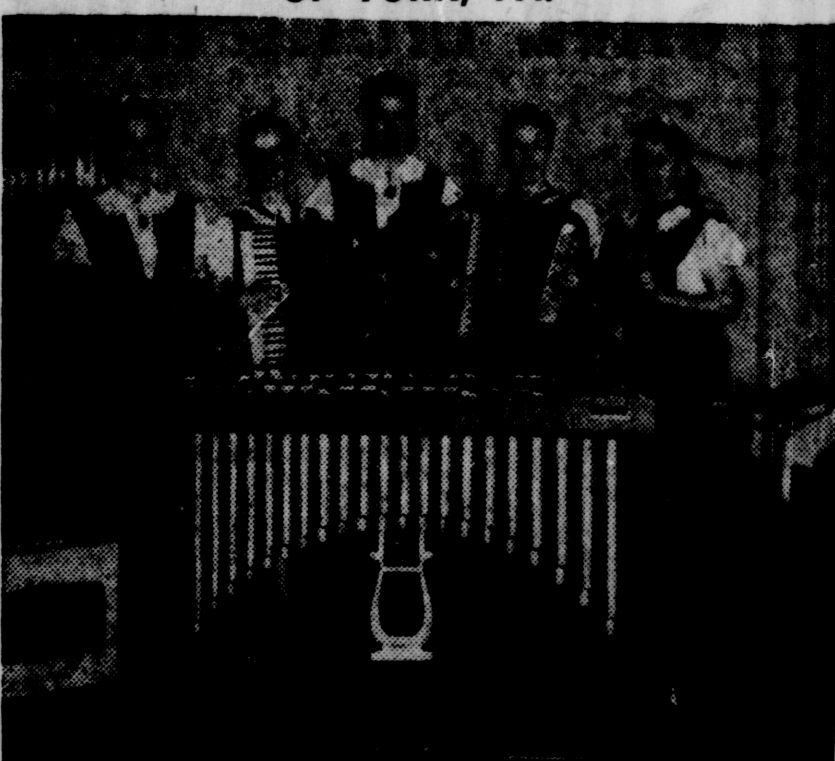

About 16,000 Swift workers would receive an immediate increase of 8 1/2 cents an hour and 6 1/2 cents an hour on Sept. 1, 1960. Pre-contract pay in the industry averaged $2.56 an hour.

The remainder of the employees, working at seven southern plants, would receive a total of 8 1/2 cents an hour over the two year period.

The aborigines of Australia still communicate by smoke signals.

Voters Of District Reminded Beaver School Levy Not New

Beaver Local School District officials today reminded voters of the district the levy issue on the Nov. 3 election ballot is for a renewal of a current levy, not a new tax.

In urging passage of the proposed renewal of a present 3-mill operating levy, George VanHorne, executive head, said the levy provides some $30,000 needed to maintain the present operations of the district.

"The money from the levy goes into the general operating fund which is used to pay teachers, maintenance, some transportation costs and for purchase of classroom materials," VanHorne explained.

There will be no increases of taxes, since this is only a renewal of a present levy," he said.

VanHorne said the total budget for the school district next year will exceed $500,000, of which only about $170,000 will come from local taxes. "The rest comes from the state foundation program, year.

without which we would be without schools," he said.

"Our district's valuation is about $9.6 million—not quite $5,000 per pupil. This is very low, since the average per pupil valuation for the state is well over $10,000," VanHorne declared.

Each pupil in the district has about $250 spent on him annually—with about $85 coming from local taxes he explained. "Education of your child—$85 a year—is one of the cheapest of your annual expenses. Your car costs more, entertainment costs more, even your smoking costs more," he said.

"The cost of the present levy is not prohibitive, and it is vital to maintaining the schools," VanHorne said in asking voters to support it.

The accidental rate in the United States last year figures at 52.5 persons per 100,000 people. This was 3.5 lower than the preceding year.

Aide At Weirton Steel To Narrate Film For Rotary

John A. Jones, director of public relations at the Weirton Steel Co. will narrate a film on "Looking Ahead With Mid-West Steel" when the Rotary Club meets Tuesday noon in the Travelers Hotel.

Mid-West Steel is a division of National Steel Corp., parent firm of Weirton Steel.

Jones joined Weirton Steel in 1943 and was named public relations director in July 1959 after serving as assistant to the manager of industrial relations since 1958.

He is a frequent lecturer on industrial journalism and public relations at educational institutions throughout the country, including West Virginia University, University of Wisconsin and the University of Notre Dame.

He is also one of the speakers for the U.S. Chamber of Commerce. Mr. and Mrs. Jones are world-wide travelers and made their second trip to Europe in 1957, traveling in Portugal, Spain, Italy, France and Ireland. In August, 1955, they returned from a 21,000-mile trip through nearly every country in East Asia.

Jones has held editorial positions on newspapers in Pittsburgh, Chicago and Philadelphia. In 1956, he won the Navy's Meritorious Public Service Award citation and gold lapel pin—one of the highest honors the Navy confers upon a civilian.

Lisbon Meeting Set For Historical Group

LISBON — Robert L. Damm, field representative of the Ohio State Historical Society, and Dr. J. H. Rodabaugh, state historian, will address an open meeting of the Lisbon Historical Society Tuesday at 8 p. m. in the study hall at David Anderson High School.

Dr. Rodabaugh will speak on the history of Ohio and discuss the many local historical societies and their functions in assembling and maintaining the past and present history of the state.

Court Allows Transfer Of $922 For Home

LISBON — Common Pleas Judge Joel H. Sharp has granted a request from Columbiana County commissioners to transfer $922.73 from the children's home fund to the general fund, to pay bills incurred at the Kyes Receiving Home in East Palestine.

The property is being remodeled and was given to the county by the Kyes heirs for use as a receiving home.

'Person To Person' TV Show Severs Connections With CBS

NEW YORK (AP)—The producers of the "Person to Person" television show are severing connections with the Columbia Broadcasting System in a row with CBS President Frank Stanton.

Saying Stanton had "slurred" their program, producers John A. Aaron and Jesse Zousmer Thursday announced jointly:

"Our lawyers have reached an amicable agreement with the lawyers for CBS to release us from our 52-week contract as soon as possible."

Last week Stanton, in the wake of the congressional probe of rigged TV quiz programs, called for honesty and realism in all CBS TV shows. At the same time he banned all TV quiz shows on his network.

He also tossed out canned laughter and applause and urged all programs—including "Person to Person"—to "play it straight" with the public. If a program was rehearsed, Stanton said, the viewing audience should be told.

"Person to Person" consists of an interviewer talking with prominent personalities in their homes. The program featured Edward R. Murrow for a number of years but now is moderated by Charles Collingwood.

Aaron and Zousmer said it was no secret that the show had been prepared in advance.

The producers said they would stay on long enough for an "orderly change" in the administration and production of the program.

In another development Thursday, Mark Goodson, co-producer of "The Price is Right," an NBC daytime and evening TV show, said the program's occasional practice of advising all contestants not to bid above a certain figure had been dropped more than a year ago.

A former contestant on the show, George Price of Canton, Ohio, said Wednesday that in June, 1958, he had been told by a staff member on the show not to exceed a bid of $3,100 in seeking to win a Mediterranean cruise by guessing the value of the cruise in competition with other contestants.

Goodson said this practice had involved no element of deception because all contestants were given the same information. Goodson said "The Price is Right" has "always been, and will continue to be, produced in a fair and honest manner."

Potters Asked To Back Hospital Levy Renewal

The International Brotherhood of Operative Potters today asked its East Liverpool members to vote for renewal of a three-quarter mill City Hospital levy at the Nov. 3 general election.

A strong appeal for support of the measure was published on Page 1 of The Potters Herald, official union newspaper. It said in part:

"The hospital is urgently in need of funds for the care of the sick who, unable to pay their own way, have nowhere else to look. We must support the hospital levy or face the bitter task of seeing the sick and needy turned away. This is the time when we must all open our hearts."

The IBOP pointed out enactment of the levy will not increase tax bills, as the measure has been in effect for 30 years, helping provide community support for the hospital.

2 Gunmen Sought Who Tied Up Six, Fled With Money

WARREN, Ohio (AP)—Authorities today were seeking two gunmen who invaded a Trumbull County home, tied up six persons and escaped with an undetermined amount of money.

The masked pair were waiting Thursday night in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gandishar in Champion, four miles northwest of here, when the couple's son, Ronald, 20, returned home with the day's receipts from the B & J Market, which the Gandishars operate north of here.

When Ronald entered the house, the robbers—one armed with a shotgun, and the other with a pistol—were holding at gunpoint his parents, two other children and his girl friend. The gunmen tied up Ronald and the others with plastic cord they had brought, took the store receipts and escaped in Ronald's car.

One of the victims wiggled free of the bonds and freed the others.

Dies Of Asphyxiation

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—Leaha Lopez, 20-month-old daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Virgilio Lopez, died Thursday when a safety valve blew off of a radiator and her bedroom was filled with steam. The Mahoning County coroner ruled death due to asphyxiation. He reported that the girl also suffered severe burns.

An illustrated lecture on the Alaska Highway and the nation's 49th state was presented by Paul Tarawsky of Weirton at a meeting of the Kiwanis Club Thursday at the Travelers Hotel.

The Weirton Steel Co. representative spoke of a trip he and his family made to Alaska recently. The 5,000-mile auto trip to the new state took 9 days, he said. He screened color slides.

Atty. John McDonald was program chairman. About 43 attended.

What Does FEVER Mean?

When infection attacks, the body usually raises its temperature. Fever, therefore, is a gauge of disease. The only way to tell accurately if fever is present is to take the patient's temperature with a reliable clinical thermometer. One should be in every home. Don't however, try to analyze the reason for a temperature. If fever is present, safety dictates that your physician be called to determine exactly what is causing the temperature and prescribe the indicated treatment.

Members of a newly organized

Gretchen Annette Eckfeld, J. T. Logan Exchange Vows

A semi-princess style gown of white antique peau de soie was worn by Miss Gretchen Annette Eckfeld, daughter of Mrs. Bianca Eckfeld, 602 Main St., Wellsville, and the late Fred Eckfeld, when she became the bride of John Trent Logan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Logan of Pittsburgh, Saturday afternoon.

The Rev. Charles Nitschke of the First Methodist Church of Den-nison officiated at the double-ring ceremony performed at 2:30 o'clock in the Wellsville First Methodist Church.

The altar setting was of white mums and palms centered with a gold cross and gold candelabra. Ralph Falconer gave a half hour of nuptial music on the organ during which Wesley Tilton Jr. sang "I Love Thee," "Through the Years" and "O Perfect Love." During the wedding ceremony, he sang "Wedding Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Norman Eckfeld.

Her gown was fashioned with a portrait neckline, long pointed sleeves and a chapel train and was hand applied in medallions of Chantilly lace dotted with variegated seed pearls. There were 14 tiny buttons on each sleeve and 63 buttons down the back.

Her fingertip veil of imported silk illusion was held by the pill-box-style headpiece also covered in peau de soie and scalloped edge lace. She carried a white Bible with a lace cover upon which was her bridal orchid and streamers of Stephanotis. She wore a pearl necklace and earrings, a gift of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Wade A. Bacon of Lisbon, sister of the bride and matron of honor, was attired in a gold faille gown with a contrasting rust semisash and bow. Her accessories were rust, which included the Dior bow headpiece and rust shoes. She carried a cascade bouquet of rust mums intertwined with ivy.

Misses Patricia Rawlings and Linda Lewis, both of Wellsville, and Martha Lewis of Canfield, college friends of the principals, were the bridesmaids and were attired in rust color dresses complemented with gold sashes and bows.

They wore gold accessories, including gold Dior bows and gold shoes and carried cascade bouquets of gold mums also intertwined with ivy.

The bridegroom's father was a best man, Willard Brown, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, Jack Lunch was served by the hostess.

The meeting Nov. 18 will be at

MRS. J. T. LOGAN

Her Nuptials Held Saturday.

Eckfeld, brother of the bride, and Bryan Kile, fraternity brother of the bridegroom and college friend of the couple, served as ushers.

The mother of the bride wore a blue lace dress with matching accessories and a corsage of white roses. The bridegroom's mother was attired in a mauve sheath dress with contrasting accessories and a corsage of rose simbidiums.

A reception followed in the social rooms with approximately 200 guests. Mrs. Jack Eckfeld of Cleveland, Mrs. Norman Eckfeld of Salem, Mrs. Bryan Kile of Adelphia, Md., and Miss Barbara Petrie of Pittsburgh were aides. Mrs. Jason Frischkorn was in charge of the guest book.

The bride attended Muskingum College at New Concord and Westminster College at New Wilmington, Pa. While at Muskingum, she was a member of the FAD Club. Her husband was graduated from Westminster, where he was a member of the Phi Kappa Tau Fraternity. He is employed as a junior accountant with Snodgrass & Co. in downtown Pittsburgh.

For traveling, the bride chose a blue tweed suit with black accessories and her white bridal orchid. After a honeymoon trip to Eastern Pennsylvania, they will reside in a newly furnished apartment in Pittsburgh.

Out of town guests at the wedding were from Pittsburgh, Cleveland, Youngstown, Marietta and New Wilmington.

A rehearsal dinner for 19 was given by the bridegroom's parents Friday at Platt's Tea Room in Wellsville.

The home of Mrs. Connie Drago of Main St.

Mrs. Kathryn Hughes and Mrs. Nellie Smith were named co-advisors for a junior auxiliary when the auxiliary of American Legion Post 70 met Wednesday night in post home.

Reports of a recent conference at Toronto were given by Mrs. Sara Rose, Mrs. Gladys Hurd, president, and Mrs. Hughes. The group will purchase 12 new banquet tables and Mrs. Mae French, first vice president, reported 40 paid-up members. Plans were completed to serve 75 members of the Musicians Local Sunday and the Veterans' Day banquet Nov. 11. Mrs. Isabel Hurt gave a national occupancy report.

Fall handbags were shown by Mrs. Dolores Excell. Lunch was served by Mrs. Hughes and Mrs. Elizabeth Stapleford. The next meeting has been changed from Nov. 11 to 18 due to the Veterans' Day banquet.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: That 12-year-old boy who complained because his grandmother cut his hair and the kids teased him started me thinking. If more people would cut their kids' hair at home maybe we could get the barber prices down.

I'm the father of three young sons. We live in Chicago. Every other Saturday the four of us go for haircuts. It costs $1.75 for each boy. Mine is $2. I'm almost bald. The barber usually gets me out of his chair in nine minutes.

My 7- and 8-year-olds have crew cuts. Last week I timed them. They were out of the chair in 13 and 15 minutes each. The 5-year-old takes 15 minutes. The barber gets $7.25.

We take a bus both ways. This little excursion chews a $10 bill to pieces.

If other outraged fathers would write the price of haircuts might come down to where they make sense.—CHICAGO POP.

Dear Chicago Pop: I've already heard from a slew of outraged fathers. I'm willing to sprint a solution to this problem if someone will come up with one. I assume, too, that the barbers have a side. I'd like to hear it.

Memory Lingers On

Dear Ann: My husband and I double date a lot with one couple. Jim used to go with the girl. I'll call her Mae.

I think she is still after him. When we go to the movies she tries to sit next to him. Whenever there's music she asks Jim to dance—she doesn't even wait till he asks her. Mae always is reminding him of the swell times they had together. I feel left out. Her husband doesn't say anything but I'm sure he doesn't like it any more than I do.

Jim has no idea I'm worried or upset. I keep telling myself there's nothing to it because Jim broke up with Mae to go with me. But I'm still jumpy inside and worry that maybe I will lose him.

Please tell me how to handle this delicate situation.—UNEASY VICTOR.

Dear Uneasy: If you want REAL trouble just start to make noises like a jealous wife. Mae sounds like an aggressive female who lost out during courtship because of her pushiness. Most men can tolerate just so much chasing, then they run for cover. Be patient—and silent.

Young And Innocent

Dear Ann: I am only 12 years of age. I don't go with boys yet. But I want to get a few things settled in my mind now so when the problem comes up I will know how to handle it.

When a boy comes over to a girl's house to visit, how does she get him to go home?—LOOKING AHEAD.

Dear Looking: Most girls worry about how to get a boy to come over to the house—not how to get him to go home.

But since you want to be prepared for all emergencies, the best way to get a boy to go home is to tell him it's getting late and you'll have to continue the interesting conversation another time. While you are saying this hand him his jacket and lead him gently to the door.

Confidentially

TO HATER OF PHONIES: Sure hypocrites go to church. But so do a great many decent people. Your generalization is unfair and your conclusions are inaccurate.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Skits Presented At Loyal Workers Halloween Party

Humorous skits were presented at the Halloween party of the Loyal Workers Class Tuesday night in the social rooms of the First Church of Christ.

Mrs. Verna Boulton gave a monologue, "The Story of My Life."

The "Mop Tops" quartet, comprised of Mrs. Wilma Hilditch, Mrs. Blanche McIntosh, Miss Ruth Cooper and Mrs. Boulton, sang "Tonight You Belong to Me," accompanied by Mrs. Bessie Cooper.

Costume prizes were won by Mrs. Vallie Mostoller, Mrs. McIntosh and Mrs. Shirley Barnes. Miss Cooper conducted devotions on the topic, "A Mighty Fortress." She read Scripture from Ps. 91 and offered prayer.

Mrs. Gerry Schneider sang "A Mighty Fortress," with Mrs. Doris Marshall as accompanist.

The group sang "Safe Am I." Mrs. Ruth Smith, president, was in charge of business and Mrs. Nellie Osborne gave the secretary-treasurer report.

Mrs. Mary Wheeler, Mrs. Bess Skelly and Mrs. Edna Winland were appointed to the nominating committee.

The class will have charge of arrangements for the fellowship dinner Oct. 28 at the church when all groups will plan the work for schools and missions.

The group will sponsor a student nurse from City Hospital as the nursery attendant one Sunday each month.

Refreshments were served 45 by Miss Cooper and Mrs. Schneider. The next meeting will be Nov. 10 at the church and Mrs. Lorna Hall and Mrs. Schneider will be hostesses.

Orchard Grove WSCS Told Of UNICEF Expenditures

Mrs. Nelle Blake, secretary of Christian social relations, explained the United Nations UNICEF at a general meeting of the WSCS of the Orchard Grove Methodist Church Wednesday evening in the social rooms. Some 20 attended.

She said that through the U.N., UNICEF dollars are matched by each country. Mrs. James Gardner, Mrs. Paul Jones and Mrs. Lawrence Black reported on a recent visit to the County Home at Lisbon and conditions they found.

Mrs. Jones reminded the group that articles of clothing in good condition for refugee babies and tiny tots must be turned in at the World Community service Nov. 6 at the Trinity United Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Jack Mossman announced that a rummage sale will be held in the rear of the City Market Building instead of in the Zange & Bence Building. The sale will be held Nov. 16-21. Members with articles to be picked up may call Mrs. Ralph Badgley.

Mrs. Charles Rippeth was appointed key woman to the United Church Women's Association. Miss Leana Jones reported on the mission school she attended in June.

Boy Wins Two Fish; Now He's Ichthyologist

EAST CAMDEN, N. J. (AP)—The care and feeding of two small zebra fish is simple. But problems can develop when the number grows to between 500 and 1,000.

Jeffrey McLaughlin, 14, won the two small fish on a bet, and began his hobby as an amateur ichthyologist with an ordinary fish bowl.

Now he has eight aquariums, with five additional tanks in reserve in the basement.

He can pick out and identify each breed—but he has trouble spelling the names.

Lawrence Reed, Wife Plan Open House Saturday

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Reed, 314 Ridgeway Ave., will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary with open house Saturday afternoon and evening.

They were married Oct. 23, 1909, in Sebring. Mrs. Reed was the former Nettie Hughes, daughter of the late Jonathan and Sara Hughes, and her husband was the son of the late Ira and Ida Reed. Both were born and reared in East Liverpool.

Formerly employed at the Homer Laughlin China Co., both are retired. They are in good health.

They have four sons, Harold Reed of Caseville, Mich., Jack Reed of Columbus, the Rev. Donald Reed, missionary to Beirut, Lebanon, who is home on furlough, and Charles Reed of St. George St.

There are five daughters, Mrs. Gladys Evanovich of Salem, Mrs.

Sara Shields of Dearborn, Ohio, Mrs. Dorothy Washburn of Danville, Va., Mrs. Jeannette Nightingale of Newport, Ohio, and Mrs. Edna Russell of Carolina Ave., Maplewood.

There are 26 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Mrs. Charles Rippeth was appointed key woman to the United Church Women's Association. Miss Leana Jones reported on the mission school she attended in June at Mt. Union College at Alliance.

Mrs. Charles White of the Mina Brokaw Circle led the worship service and read Gen. 22:1-18. After group singing of the hymn, "We've a Story to Tell to the Nations," she closed with the benediction.

Mrs. Albert Keddle accompanied singing. During the program, Mrs. Richard Crowder sang a solo, "There's Nothing That God Can't Do." Mrs. James Gardner, secretary of spiritual life, led in a special responsive reading.

To the accompaniment of soft music by Mrs. Keddle, envelopes containing an offering for the Week of Prayer and Self-Denial were placed on the worship table.

A buffet lunch was served by the Annie Holmes Circle from a table centered with a gold cornucopia, filled with colorful gourds and bittersweet, flanked by orange and black tapers.

Next meeting will be Nov. 18 with the Afternoon Circle in charge of the worship service. Mrs. William Blakeley, chairman of the Commission on Missions, will be in charge of the program.

Members of the Mina Brokaw Circle will be hostesses.

Boy Wins Two Fish; Now He's Ichthyologist

EAST CAMDEN, N. J. — The care and feeding of two small zebra fish is simple. But problems can develop when the number grows to between 500 and 1,000.

Jeffrey McLaughlin, 14, won the two small fish on a bet, and began his hobby as an amateur ichthyologist with an ordinary fish bowl.

Now he has eight aquariums, with five additional tanks in reserve in the basement.

He can pick out and identify each breed — but he has trouble spelling the names.

Lawrence Reed, Wife Plan Open House Saturday

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Reed, 314 Ridgeway Ave., will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary with open house Saturday afternoon and evening.

They were married Oct. 23, 1903, in Sebring. Mrs. Reed was the former Nettie Hughes, daughter of the late Jonathan and Sara Hughes, and her husband was the son of the late Ira and Ida Reed. Both were born and reared in East Liverpool.

Formerly employed at the Homer Laughlin China Co., both are retired. They are in good health. They have four sons, Harold Reed of Caseville, Mich., Jack Reed of Columbus, the Rev. Donald Reed, missionary to Beirut, Lebanon, who is home on furlough, and Charles Reed of St. George St.

There are five daughters, Mrs. Gladys Evanovich of Salem, Mrs.

Sara Shields of Dearborn, Ohio, Mrs. Dorothy Washburn of Danville, Va., Mrs. Jeannette Nightingale of Newport, Ohio, and Mrs. Edna Russell of Carolina Ave., Maplewood.

There are 26 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

The United States has a coastline of 5,565 miles on the Atlantic Ocean, 2,730 miles on the Pacific and 3,641 miles on the Gulf of Mexico, making a total coastline of 11,936 miles.

Siamese Twins Seen No Longer Critical

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — The Stubblefield Siamese twins, separated Oct. 6, no longer are in critical condition.

"Their conditions are now satisfactory and the outlook is favorable," said a spokesman at the University of Oregon Medical School Hospital Thursday.

A team of 17 surgeons, technicians and nurses separated the two girls, Jeannet and Denett, now 3½ months old. The girls had been joined from breastbone to navel.

The parents are Mr. and Mrs. James Stubblefield of Parma, Idaho.

Ohio May Figure In It

Congress To Investigate Multi-Billion Roads Plan

WASHINGTON (AP) — Watch the next session of Congress for a lively investigation of the multi-billion-dollar roads program. Ohio may figure in this one.

The inquiry will be conducted by a special committee headed by Rep. John A. Blatnik (D-Minn). He promises to expose fraud and skulduggery if he finds it.

"But I don't intend to make a whipping boy out of federal and state highway agencies," says Blatnik.

Rep. Burr Harrison (D-Va) expects the investigation is politics.

Without naming them, Scherer said in a Boston speech the other day that some members of this committee "are not known for their lack of partisanship."

"They also have those qualifications and abilities which some people say are necessary for good hatchet men," he said, adding, ironically, he is sure they won't use those abilities to that end.

Beyond that, Scherer noted that next year will be an election year and that so far he has been unable to get even one Republican on the investigate staff.

A reporter called the House Public Works Committee about that, and was told that Blatnik is seriously considering Scherer's request.

As it happens, the Republicans also are conducting an investigation of the road program at the White House level.

The stress here is on trying to cut costs. The top consultant to this Eisenhower group is Charles M. Noble, the former Ohio highway director who believed strongly that trimming roads standards was false economy.

Whether the Blatnik investigation is merely, as Scherer claims, a partisan attack on the COP-run Bureau of Roads or a real search for fraud will be known soon.

The inquiry certainly will have a lot of political overtones. Already, Scherer is saying that he is trying to decide "whether to continue to serve as a member of the subcommittee."

Contracts Are Let

CANTON, Ohio (AP) — The Brotherhood of Christian Instruction, a Catholic order, has let contracts for the first two buildings of a new liberal arts college it plans on a 50-acre site north of here. Construction is expected to begin immediately. The college project will cost approximately one million dollars.

97 At WSCS Area Session

Fourteen persons from the northern Hancock County area were among a group of 97 at a meeting of the Panhandle Sub-District of the Allegheny District WSCS Thursday in the Midway (Pa.) Methodist Church.

The day-long session included conferences between district and local officers and stressed participation in the "Week of Prayer and Self-Denial" which begins Sunday.

Delegates included six from Chester, five from New Cumberland, three from Newell and several from Weirton.

Mrs. Omar Ford of Weirton opened the morning session as chairman, while devotions were led by Mrs. Paul Daugherty of Weirton, district secretary of spiritual life.

Fourteen district officers and seven Pittsburgh conference officers were present.

Mrs. George Gray, Allegheny district president, presided for afternoon business. Speakers included Mrs. James Moore of Weirton Heights, Mrs. Daugherty summarized the session in the afternoon. Mrs. Thomas McCartney of Weirton gave a solo dedicating the meeting.

Theme for the afternoon was "Blessed are They Who Do His Commandments." Lunch was served by the Midway church group.

Chester Key Club Will Give Dance

A sock dance for Tri-State area high school students will be held tonight from 8 to 11 at the Chester High School gymnasium.

The Chester Key Club, sponsors, completed plans for the event at a meeting Thursday. Robert Shaffer was inducted as a member.

The group will attend Sunday morning services at the Chester Methodist Church. Plans were made to tour the Taylor, Smith & Taylor Co. pottery Tuesday.

Alvin (Pete) Arner and Jack Berry were guests. Reid Calcott, president, was in charge.

Class Will Give Play For Wayne PTA Event

A cast of players from the COM Class of the Bethel Presbyterian Church will give its third presentation of the one-act comedy, "Henry's Mail Order Wife," Saturday night at the Wayne School, near Gavers, as a feature of the Wayne Parent Teacher Association festival.

The festival is scheduled at 7:30 p. m. (DST) and the play at 9:30. The comedy in three scenes is directed by Mrs. Bruce Thorne. The cast includes Ralph Hays, Dale Rose, Clarence Williams, Mrs. John Witherow, Mrs. Harold Thompson and Joseph Varner Jr.

The play was given previously in the Highlandtown Grange Hall and at the school.

Highlandtown Firemen Get Building Reports

Reports on building progress of the fire station were heard by Highlandtown volunteer firemen Wednesday night.

Ceiling tile and overhead doors for the front will be purchased this week. The building is nearing completion. The floor is unfinished. Plans were discussed for holding a public turkey dinner Thanksgiving Day but nothing definite was decided. Eight were present. John Baker, president, conducted business.

The next meeting will be Monday night at 7:30, according to Dale Rose, secretary.

3 Funds Collected Money

Liquor Profit $8.7 Million For West Virginia In 1958

CHARLESTON, W. Va. — West Virginia's liquor monopoly business brought a profit during the past fiscal year of $8,795,008.43, Liquor Commissioner Morris C. Shawkey reported.

Shawkey made public today his reporting letter to Gov. Underwood.

The Liquor Commission did a gross business of $36,324,482 for the fiscal year ended last June 30, Shawkey related.

Three funds got money from liquor profits. Those and their totals were:

General revenue fund—$6,500,000; retirement of Korean War veterans bonus bonds—$1,800,000; and payments toward retirement of World War II veterans bonus bonds—$1,600,000.

Shawkey pointed out the disparity of $1,104,991.57 between fiscal 1958-59 profits and the over-all $9,900,000 contributed to the three funds.

He said there were some financial reimbursements. Shawkey mentioned that "the department was saddled with some heavy investments in either painfully slow moving or completely unmarketable merchandise."

He said some merchandise had been on store shelves since 1953. Shawkey said an overhauling still is being pursued, with about 10,200 cases of liquor involved.

The liquor commissioner said exchanges were made with producers in some cases, while in others there was a credit adjustment.

"Modest revenues were also produced by removing spoiled stocks from the store shelves and the warehouse floors, and subsequently filing claims for monetary reimbursements," Shawkey wrote.

Gross receipts in fiscal 1957-58 amounted to $38,261,858, or $1,937,376 more than for the past fiscal year. The net profit for 1957-58 was $9,432,194, or $637,185 more than the most recent take.

West Virginia began its liquor control program on March 5, 1935. The state's general revenue fund

Club Enrolls 4 As Members

Four men were accepted as members of the Chester Lions Club at a meeting Thursday night at the clubhouse.

Enrolled were Richard M. Clayton, Roy Cashdollar and Clarence Baker. They will be inducted at a "Ladies Night" meeting Nov. 12 which the district governor is to attend.

Charles Mansfield, chairman of the Christmas tree committee, reported trees have been ordered for holiday sale to raise money for projects.

Jerry D'Angelo, president, reported on a statewide campaign to raise money for sight conservation.

Harry Lewis, Cyrus Hobbs and Walter Jordan were named a membership committee. Jordan will attend the annual district fall conference Oct. 31 at Clarksburg. The next meeting will be Nov. 12.

Man Killed By Car

CLEVELAND (AP)—James Balantyne, 34, of North Royalton was killed Thursday night when hit by a car in the suburb. Police said he apparently walked in front of the car. They did not hold the driver.

Interest Rates Are Clarified For E And H Savings Bonds

WASHINGTON — Many questions have arisen since the increase in interest rates on Series E and H Savings Bonds.

To answer those most frequently asked, the Treasury Department has prepared the following:

Q—Has the interest rate been raised on U. S. Savings Bonds? If so, how much?

A—Yes, interest rates on Series E and H Savings Bonds sold since June 1, 1959, have been increased to 3 3/4 per cent.

Q—Does this new interest rate apply to all of my old bonds?

A—Yes, interest has been increased to at least 1/2 per cent on all E and H bonds sold prior to June 1, 1959.

Q—IS THERE anything I must do to receive this increase in interest on my old bonds?

A—No. The increase is automatic and is effective June 1, 1959.

Q—Are the E bonds I bought during World War II still drawing interest?

A—Definitely yes. All E bonds purchased before April 1957 were automatically extended an additional 10 years. The new law grants a second 10-year extension for those bonds which are not over 10 years old.

Q—Will there be any advantage in cashing in my old bonds to buy the new?

A—No, since the increased interest rate applies to old bonds as well as new, in practically every instance, it is to the advantage of those who already hold Savings Bonds to retain them.

Q—I have purchased Series E bonds since June 1, 1959, but they do not say anything about the new 3 3/4 per cent interest rate.

A—As a money savings measure the Treasury Department will use all old bond stock. You can be sure that if your bond carries an issue date of June 1, 1959, or later the new interest rate will apply.

Q—DOES A $25 E bond still cost $18.75?

A—Yes, it does. The denominations and issue costs have not been changed.

Q—Well then, how do I receive my increase in interest?

A—Increased interest is due to the fact that the life of the Series E bond has been reduced to 7 years and 9 months. You not only get a higher rate of interest but you get it faster.

Q—My parents now hold Series H bonds. Does this rate apply to the H bonds also?

A—Yes, it does. The interest increase will be reflected in higher semi-annual interest checks.

Q—Does the Series H bond carry an extension privilege such as the E bond?

A—Yes, it does. All H bonds now have been extended for an additional 10 years.

Third Family Institute Draws Crowd Of 100

LISBON — Over 100 persons attended the third annual Family Life Institute Wednesday evening at the Methodist Church, sponsored by the Columbiana County Home Demonstration Council.

Dr. Marvin Koller of Kent State University was guest speaker. The theme used for the meeting was "It's Later Than You Think."

A luncheon committee headed by Mrs. Ralph Phillips of Salem R. D. 3 served refreshments.

Councilman Claimed

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP) — Robert Blair Shilling, 52, Struthers city councilman, died of carbon monoxide poisoning, Mahoning County Coroner Dr. David Belinkey ruled. Shilling had been dead from 12 to 24 hours before his body was found in a parked car in his garage Thursday, Dr. Belinkey said. The coroner continued investigation.

Brilliant Fall Termed At Peak Scenery In Ohio

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Brilliant fall scenery around the state is at its peak.

Park managers report this week end will be the most colorful of the year in Ohio's rural areas and hill-country forests, the Division of Parks says.

Here is a rundown on color conditions, as reported by the Parks Division:

Hueston Woods State Park in the southwest is bursting with yellow and red color. Punderson Lake Park, Geauga County, shows much red, orange and yellow with some rich purples.

Observers at Hocking County Park say red, yellow and brown is plentiful. Burr Oak State Park, Athens and Morgan counties, boasts blazing reds and rusts amid strong greens.

Pike State Park, Pike County, reports red, yellow, brown and green are showing well. Giant Shawnee State Forest, Scioto and Adams counties, also sports colorful maple trees.

Sentenced To Life

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Howard W. Johnson, 48, of Columbus, was sentenced to life in Ohio Penitentiary after pleading guilty in court here Thursday to second-degree murder. He shot and killed his estranged wife, Mattye L. Johnson, 34, in her home here July 15.

Salem Student Heads New County Council

Mickey Cope of Salem was elected president of the newly organized Columbiana County Area Student Council Wednesday at East Liverpool High School.

Tom Brooks of Lisbon was named vice president; Lynn Riebel of East Liverpool, secretary, and Bruce Jones of East Liverpool, treasurer.

About 23 students and advisors attended the initial meeting of the group organized to give students of the schools better understanding of each other and to exchange ideas.

Those at the meeting represented Columbiana, East Liverpool, East Palestine, Leetonia, Salem and Lisbon.

Bequest Of $17 Million Makes Charity Trust One Of Richest

It isn't every day that a charity fund gets 17 million dollars from one individual. But it happened in Boston with a little known multimillionaire bachelor as the key figure. Here is the story of a man whose life was described as "a pattern of dignity."

By HENRY L. SUPPLE

BOSTON (AP) — The bequest of an 82-year-old mystery financier has made a Boston community charity trust one of the richest in the nation.

The sum of 17 million dollars was left by Albert Stone Jr., a multimillionaire bachelor who in late years lived so quietly his bankers rarely saw him.

Stone died May 10. His will of four paragraphs directed that his entire estate go to the Permanent Charity Fund formed 41 years ago to support charitable work in Greater Boston. It was the largest charitable bequest ever made to a community trust.

Trustee of the fund is the Boston Safe Deposit and Trust Co. The bank's president, William W. Wolbach, says Stone long had been a depositor but came to the bank rarely and had been in failing health in recent years.

It was not a case of rags to riches, however. Wolbach says he understood Stone was left several million dollars by his father. Fund officials said most of the money is in "sound common stock."

"We honestly didn't really know what Stone did," says Wolbach.

"Twenty years ago he walked into our office and said he had decided to give something to charity. We explained how our organization operates to help many charities in the metropolitan area.

"He concluded, 'That's what I'm looking for.'"

Money for the various community projects comes from interest on the funds held in trust.

Sidney Stone, a cousin, is the only living relative. He says Stone attended Chauncey Hall School but did not go to college. At the turn of the century Albert was in the shoe business as a jobber. He sold the firm in 1910 and joined his grandfather and other relatives in the real estate business.

Device Invented By A-Expert May End Smog Battle

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Air pollution experts say a device invented by a nuclear scientist may end this city's long battle with smog.

Smith Griswold, head of the Air Pollution Control District, told the board of supervisors Thursday that the device "is capable of rolling back smog to the pre-1940 level."

There wasn't any smog to mention in Los Angeles before 1940. Supervisors immediately clamored for a state law requiring the invention—an afterburner exhaust manifold—on all 1961 cars sold in California.

Griswold's experts say auto exhaust is the last unchecked source of smog-producing hydrocarbons in Los Angeles.

Dr. Stuart Ridgeway of the Thompson Ramo-Woolridge Corp. invented it.

The Thompson Ramo-Woolridge Device is a manifold with an air pump—its only moving part—to blow oxygen onto the exhaust gases, like the blacksmith's bellows, to burn the gases at about 1,500 degrees.

Heart Attack Fatal

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP) — Earle L. Flad, 72, superintendent of the slag department at the U.S. Steel Corp. plant at Youngstown, died Wednesday of a heart attack. He was a former president of the National Slag Assn.

Indictments Cite 2 Mansfield Men On Football Pool

CLEVELAND (AP) — Two Mansfield men were indicted by the federal grand jury Thursday on charges involving a football pool they allegedly operated in 1955, 1956 and 1957.

Michael F. Hallabrin, 49, and Clarence I. Steffey, 50, are charged with failure to get a $50 federal gambling stamp for each of the three years.

They also are charged with failure to register with the secretary of the treasury as persons accepting wagers and failure to file excise tax returns and pay the required 10 per cent tax on wagers accepted.

Asst. U. S. Atty. James C. Sennett said there was evidence that in the three years the two men accepted wagers totaling $64,900 on which they should have paid taxes amounting to $6,490.

Hallabrin and Steffey allegedly operated in Mansfield and eight surrounding counties.

Patient Labor At Hospitals Must Be Altered, DiSalle Says

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Michael V. DiSalle has told labor leaders that Ohio's program of patient labor at mental hospitals must be altered.

In a letter to AFL-CIO officials Thursday, the governor blamed the state's financial circumstances for putting nearly one-fourth of the institution's patient load into the work force.

As of Sept. 30, DiSalle wrote, 8,877 patients were being used as workers in the institutions.

The labor leaders had objected to the proposed use of prison labor at the institutions. DiSalle said this program will continue but sent the leaders a list of 19 vacancies for maintenance personnel in 11 institutions. He asked their help in locating the people. DiSalle added, however, that if the posts are not filled the state may have to recruit such personnel from penal institutions.

The governor said he hoped to eliminate patient labor at the institutions "unless it can be definitely determined . . . that the work done is aiding the patient. He felt that some work actually delayed recovery of patients.

DiSalle said the number of patient-workers at mental hospitals may help explain why Ohio spends only an estimated $3.92 a day for patient care against a $26.27 average for general hospitals. In 1950, he added, the figures were $1.78 as compared to $14.50.

Another Local Eyes Ballot In Building Plan

Another local of the International Brotherhood of Operative Pottery is scheduled to vote on a proposal to request a referendum of the trade on plans to erect a new union headquarters on Route 7 near Beaver Local High School.

Local 22, Mouldmakers, published an official notice Thursday in The Pottery Herald, union newspaper, advising its members that a special meeting will be held Saturday, Oct. 31, to vote "on a resolution initiating a referendum of the trade to nullify a building program approved by the delegates at the 1959 convention in Montreal, Canada."

Members will vote by secret ballot and polls will be open from 3 to 4 p. m., the notice said.

Local 22's action is another step in a move sponsored by some members of the IBOP to attempt to secure a statewide vote on the union's building plans. The dissidents said international officials will be required to schedule a referendum if eight locals enact resolutions requesting such action.

At least one other East Liverpool local voted earlier on such a resolution, but the outcome was not announced publicly.

Meanwhile, the Herald published a dispatch from the official correspondent of Local 33 in Beaver Falls denouncing the referendum move. It said in part:

"Local 33 publicly denounces such tactics. This was a mandate from our international convention. Local 33 urges the international Executive Board to continue the building of our new headquarters without delay. We will give our wholehearted support in this matter."

Your Community Fund

By DIANE HALL

Objectives Of Drive Are Reviewed

(This is another of the essays submitted by district students in conjunction with the Community Fund campaign. Today's article is by Diane Hall of Armstrong Ln.)

Why support the Community Fund? Perhaps it would be best to review the objectives of the association as taken from their constitution.

To strengthen and make socially efficient the spirit of human helpfulness.

To coordinate the work of character-building, charitable, civic, philanthropic and benevolent organizations.

To promote cooperation, efficiency and economy of such organizations to the end that pauperism and delinquency and such social conditions as tend to create and perpetuate them may be reduced and ultimately eliminated.

We only need to go as far as the first objective to know that down deep in our hearts we believe in the Community Fund, for we certainly believe in the spirit of human helpfulness.

In the early days of our country, when the population was but a few hundred, it was relatively simple to pool our resources when help was needed. As we grew and our society became more complex, civic-minded people organized to handle needs. The next natural step was to combine fund drives of various organizations into one united effort. This way it enables us to enlist the aid of hundreds of workers. And in so doing, every one in our community is contacted and given an opportunity to help build a better community by developing proper character and aiding the needy.

Regardless of how carefree and independent we may appear, we still have rooted in our being the belief in the brotherhood of man and the Fatherhood of God. We are grateful that we have the opportunity of proving this, through the giving of our time and money to the Community Fund.

8 New Law Suits Started

More Controversy Looms For New Fair Trade Law

CLEVELAND (AP)—Ohio's new fair trade law, enacted over Gov. Michael V. DiSalle's veto, is headed for more controversy.

The law, which went into effect Thursday, permits manufacturers to set minimum retail prices on their products.

A previous fair trade law was thrown out as unconstitutional by the Ohio Supreme Court.

Even before the new law became effective, five lawsuits challenging its constitutionality had been filed in Cuyahoga County Common Pleas Court. Eight new lawsuits were started Thursday.

The litigation involves seven Ohio drug distributors in Cleveland, Columbus, Dayton, Youngstown, Cincinnati and Norwood. Defendants are three national drug manufacturers — Upjohn Co. of Kalamazoo, Mich., Eli Lilly Co.,

Indianapolis, and E. R. Squibb & Sons, Cleveland.

Leonard Lane, attorney for the retail firms, said the manufacturers notified the distributors that vitamins and certain other of their products must be sold at fair trade prices.

Lane said the retail companies will maintain their present prices until the law has been tested. Three big Cleveland drugstore chains, Gray Drug Stores, Inc., the Standard Drug Co., and the Marshall Drug Co., said they also would maintain present price levels pending court action.

Upjohn was the subject of five suits filed before the law went into effect. An attempt to get an early hearing of the cases failed.

Two new actions were started against Upjohn Thursday. Lilly was the subject of five suits. Squibb was named in one.

Five Indicted On Car Theft Ring Charge

CLEVELAND (AP)—Four men and a woman, accused of operating an interstate auto theft ring, were indicted by the federal grand jury Thursday on charges of conspiring to transport and sell stolen cars in interstate commerce.

Carlton C. Helbig Jr., of Lakewood, head of the bankrupt Super Auto Sales, Inc., around which the ring's activities allegedly centered, was one of those named in the eight-count indictment.

The others were Frank J. Kiraly, 33; his wife, Eleanor C. Kiraly and Albert P. Lauerhass Jr., 46, all of Cleveland, and Panteymon (Pat) Dubina, also known as James Pat Dubina, 46, of Parma.

Named as a co-conspirator, but not as a defendant, was Emil Norman Durand Jr., 28, of Cleveland. He was sentenced to 18 months in prison recently after pleading guilty to interstate auto theft.

Helbig, Kiraly and Lauerhass are at liberty under $10,000 bond each. Dubina is in the county jail on a charge of parole violation and Mrs. Kiraly was to be served with a summons today.

All five named in the indictment are included in the conspiracy count. The other seven counts charge Helbig, Kiraly and Lauerhass with transporting and selling cars.

Authorities claim operations of the ring extended into Illinois, Michigan, Pennsylvania and various parts of Ohio.

Democrats Expect 550 To Greet Gov. DiSalle

Over 550 are expected at the "Governor's Dinner" to be held by Columbiana County Democrats Saturday at Columbiana, Don R. Gossney, county chairman, said today.

Gov. Michael V. DiSalle will be speaker at the dinner at which candidates in the Nov. 3 general election will be honored.

Gov. DiSalle and an aide, Maurice Connell, are expected to arrive at Youngstown by private plane about 5:50. The dinner is slated to start at 6:45 at the Joshua Dixon School.

Beaver Welfare Fund Drive Opens Monday

Beaver County will have a goal of $589,330 in various United Fund campaigns underway or planned, Christopher Gunderson, executive secretary of the United Funds of Beaver County, said today.

The Beaver area campaign kickoff will be held Monday at 6:15 p. m. at the Penn-Beaver Hotel in Rochester. Speakers will include Gunderson and Karl Grau, personnel manager of Babcock & Wilco, Tubular Products Division of Beaver Falls.

The Upper Beaver Valley opening and first report meeting for Beaver Falls, New Brighton and surrounding area will be Nov. 4. Ambridge will open its drive Nov. 2.

Rochester's campaign began Monday. All will end about Nov. 24. Neither the Midland nor Aliquippa areas will participate now. Their drives are expected in March.

Request For Metal To Make Reflective Car Tags Rejected

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—A request for special metal to make reflective license tags in Ohio was turned down Thursday by the State Controlling Board.

The Department of Mental Hygiene and Correction had asked for $45,000 worth of the reflective metal to produce some 200,000 tags for a safety study.

Ohio Highway Safety Director J. Grant Keys said the 1960 plates would have been distributed around Ohio to determine their effectiveness in highway safety.

Keys feels that the tags would reduce accidents and assist in law enforcement. If such a study proved successful, he said, he would then go to the Legislature with a proposal to make all Ohio license plates of the metal.

Clinton V. Oster, deputy finance director, told Keys the disapproval action was "on recommendation of the administration."

Keys said he wasn't going to give up. He insisted the metal would be more effective than paint with reflective particles.

The purchase would have been on a non-competitive basis. A St. Paul, Minn., firm is the only known source.

Beaver Local Cancels Slated Board Meeting

A meeting of the Beaver Local Board of Education slated Monday night has been canceled, because most of the current business matters of the board were handled at a special session Tuesday.

George VanHorne, executive head, is at Columbus today completing preliminary arrangements for submitting bids for school equipment to the State Board of Education.

Some 16 bids for office, kitchen and classroom equipment for new school additions were received by the school authorities last week, and are to be considered by the State Board Nov. 9 for approval.

At Tuesday's meeting of the Beaver Local board, Edgar Great-house of near Rogers was employed as a bus mechanic's helper. Harry Greenwood, clerk, was authorized to make payments on bills. The next board meeting will be Nov. 9.

The Trip Was Worth It $$$. . .

East Liverpool High School's financial wounds were healed to a great degree after the profit from the Warren game last Friday night was disclosed today.

Officials of the two schools met in Warren this week to complete the report and the local high school came out with a net profit of $9,322.65.

George Hargraves, principal, said the total receipts on the game came to $12,669.20. The agreement was that East Liverpool would receive $8,000 of the first $10,000 and the two schools would go on a 50-50 basis on anything over $10,000.

This gave East Liverpool another $1,334 plus season tickets which came to $437. There was $107 refunded in to season ticketholders.

A Shot In The Arm . . .

WE HAVE been ribbed about predicting East Liverpool to lose at Warren, but this is one time when we are happy to be wrong.

There was more behind the Warren game than a 14-13 victory. It was the one "big shot" in the arm needed for East Liverpool athletes.

The victory brought everybody together for the first time in several years and all of the East Liverpool followers agreed it was a job well done by coach Lou Venditti and his gallant team.

The 1,700 Potter fans who traveled to Warren deserve a big thanks for such fine backing. We hope—

No Picnic For Potters . . .

WHAT ARE East Liverpool's chances the rest of the way? The second half of the season is going to be rougher than the first half.

The Potters hurdled a major opponent in Warren, but after tonight the four remaining foes have only lost three games among them.

Lou Venditti calls Steubenville Central "the most underrated team in Ohio."

Central is East Liverpool's opponent next Saturday night in Steubenville and if the Potters are going to lose another game this year we feel it could be to the Crusaders.

Central is undefeated with five straight victories, including a 6-0

This 'N That In Sports . . .

WE HOPE our good friend Ivor "Soap" Wilson will be up and around soon. He is in City Hospital. "Soap" managed Post 374 Junior baseball teams for many years.

JIM POTTS scored a touchdown in Bowling Green's 51-21 victory over Toledo last Saturday. A week ago he passed for another TD to help the undefeated Falcons.

WE WILL proceed with more caution this week on our predictions. Last week we hit 11 out of 13, but missed the big one—East Liverpool and Warren.

Tonight we will stick with the Potters by three touchdowns over Struthers.

Salem is our choice to defeat Wellsville. The Quakers play a lot of defense. Irondale should get past Newell and Carrollton gets the nod over United.

We like Lisbon over Louisville, East Palestine to whip Minerva, Wellsburg over New Cumberland and Sebring to defeat Columbiana.

Browns, Skins Expected To Play Tight Contest

CLEVELAND (AP)—The game between the Cleveland Browns and Washington Redskins Sunday afternoon at Municipal Stadium will be a close one if the teams stick to the pattern they have followed in recent years.

Only seven points have separated the two teams over the last eight games. Cleveland won four, lost three and tied one.

The Browns and Redskins are part of a four-way tie for second place in the Eastern Division of the National Football League.

Washington has split with Pittsburgh and the Chicago Cardinals. The Browns have two wins over the Cards and losses to the Steelers and New York.

The Browns worked on defense Thursday at League Park, concentrating on possible ways to stop

ELHS Shoots For 5th Straight Win Tonight

State Ranking Also At Stake With Wildcats

The East Liverpool Potters will attempt to extend their winning streak to five straight and retain their position among Ohio's top 10 teams tonight at Struthers. The kickoff is set for 7:45.

It will be a case of Lou Venditti meeting his former assistant coach, Ed Strauss, who took over the head job at Struthers this season.

The Wildcats, with a lineup comprised mostly of juniors, have a 1-3-1 record.

East Liverpool and Struthers have competed on the gridiron five times. The most recent meeting was in 1957.

The 1957 contest was scheduled at the last minute when both schools had postponed previous games because of the "flu bug" which hit area schools that year.

Struthers won the game, 35-12. Prior to 1957, the two schools played four times, from 1922 to 1925.

The Wildcats hold a 3-2 edge in the series, so the Potters can even the score with a victory tonight.

Venditti's "14 iron men" are ready for another test after spilling Warren last week.

The Potter coach said he won't know until game time who the starting tackles will be. The battle is on between Craig Burbick, Skip Hall and Bruce "Big Mama" Reynolds.

The rest of the lineup remains the same as was used against Warren. Bob Mackall, the Potters' leading candidate for all-state honors, will resume his role at quarterback.

Halfbacks Dave Zelch and Henry Roach and fullback John Goodballet round out the backfield.

Venditti said Ron Prince will be ready to start at one end. Prince was shaken up in the first half at Warren when he was kicked in the head, but will be ready for action tonight. Tim Archer will be at the other terminal position.

Charlie Davidson and Jim Bise are slated for the guard posts, while Gary Montgomery remains at center.

Struthers will center its offense around quarterback John McComish, who is a threat as a passer and runner.

Joining McComish in the backfield will be Rich Jonda, Tony Gentile and Frank Belichick.

Strauss plans to start Tom Perkins and Rein Siiner at the end posts. Perkins is a favorite target for McComish.

The tackles will be Rich Sermen and Tom Chako. Bob Alexander and Victor Melchionne will get the nod at guards and Ron Novak will be at center.

East Liverpool and Struthers have played one common foe—Girard. The Potters scored a 22-6 victory, while Struthers showed a 14-8 win.

Girard is the only team Struthers has defeated. The Wildcats tied Youngstown Woodrow Wilson and were beaten by Steubenville Central, next week's Potter foe, Youngstown East and Austintown Fitch.

Reynolds, one of the largest linemen that East Liverpool has had in many years, turned in an outstanding performance last week in the upset at Warren. He will be seeing a lot of action tonight against Struthers.

Conley Named Comeback Player In National Loop

NEW YORK (AP) —Gene Conley's basketball team won the world's professional championship last season. His baseball club finished in the cellar.

Today, the lanky Philadelphia pitcher himself came out on top in the voting for the National League comeback player of the year. He received 58 of the 168 votes cast by members of the Baseball Writers' Assn. of America. Wally Moon of the Los Angeles Dodgers was second with 45 votes followed by Duke Snider, another member of the world champions, with 22.

Conley, who plays for the Boston Celtics of the National Basketball Assn., switched baseball uniforms last March 31 when the Phillies acquired him from Milwaukee in a six-player transaction.

The change worked wonders for the 29-year-old right-hander. He collected at least one victory against each club in the league, finishing with a 12-7 record and a 3.00 earned run average. He suffered a fractured finger on his pitching hand when hit by a pitched ball Aug. 19 and did not pitch the rest of the year. With the Braves the previous season, Conley did not win a game and lost six, compiling a 4.88 ERA. Gene's best big league mark was 14-9 with the Braves in 1954.

Newell In Homecoming Contest

Strong Salem Club Eyes 5th Victory At Wellsville

Thirteen games will be played on district gridirons this week, with eight contests tonight and five Saturday.

East Liverpool will travel to Struthers. The big contest on the local front will find Salem at Wellsville.

Salem risks a chance of being scored upon by an Ohio team. In its only defeat this season the Quakers dropped a 14-0 decision to Ambridge, a Pennsylvania foe.

In four other games with Ohio opponents Salem has scored four straight shutouts. The victories were over Cleveland Lincoln 42-0, Ravenna 48-0, Canton Timken 32-0 and last week Akron Hoban 6-0.

Meanwhile, the Tigers under Coach Ken Woods are enjoying their winningest season in several years. Wellsville shows a three-game streak and has only lost one—to Toronto. The Bengals have one tie.

At Newell, homecoming will be celebrated tonight with the game scheduled to get under way at 8 (DST).

Newell's opponent will be Irondale. The Vikings of Pete Horosko have failed to win a contest this season and have yet to score.

Newell has dropped five games and has a 0-0 tie with Northwestern.

Defense Pays Off For Wings

By The Associated Press
Only the fifth place Chicago Black Hawks have scored fewer goals than the Detroit Red Wings. Even the last-place New York Rangers, with 22, are six ahead of the Wings in the scoring column.

Yet Detroit is leading the National Hockey League with five victories and one tie in six starts, so the answer obviously is defense, and more particularly goalie Terry Sawchuk.

Sawchuk gave another brilliant performance Thursday night as the Wings turned back the Boston Bruins, 4-1. In the third period Guy Gendron of the Bruins shot the puck past Sawchuk for the lone Boston goal, the first marker the ace netminder has allowed in nearly 143 minutes of play.

It was a tight game until the last minute of play, when the Wings scored twice after the Bruins had pulled goalie Don Simmons in a desperation effort to turn the tide. Simmons went out with just 70 seconds to play, and 12 seconds later Marcel Pronovost scored into the open net. Half a minute later Gordie Howe did the same thing, and that was that.

Val Fonteyne scored the first goal in the first period, and Detroit made it 2-0 when Billy McNeill deflected Warren Godfrey's long shot at the corner of the cage in the final period.

Irondale shows a record of two wins in four games. The victories have been over Mt. Pleasant, 12-8, and Salineville, 28-0.

In other contests, United takes a three-game winning streak to Carrollton, while Louisville invades Lisbon, Columbiana goes to Sebring, East Palestine puts its 16-game winning streak on the line at Minerva and Wellsburg visits New Cumberland.

Action will be thick on Saturday when the Midland Leopards shoot for their sixth win in seven games against Hopewell. This game has been moved to Aliquippa, with the kickoff set for 8:15. Wayne visits Salineville, while Fairfield Waterford goes to Beaver Local, in afternoon games.

South Side plays at Weirton Madonna in an 8 p. m. battle and Leetonia travels to Poland.

24 Second Regulation Eyed

Some Ohio High Schools To Test New Cage Rules

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's high school basketball courts will be used as laboratories this winter for some rules research.

Several regular season games will try out revolutionary regulations suggested by the National Basketball Rules Committee.

One is a regulation now in effect among the professionals which forces a team to shoot within 24 seconds of gaining ball possession, or surrender the ball to the foe.

Another would do away with free throw shooting after a foul by the offensive team—the defenders merely being given the ball out of bounds while the infraction is chalked up against the offending player. Defensive fouls would be treated as at present, with free throws given the offended team.

The Massillon at Mansfield game of Feb. 6 is definitely set for a test of the 24-second rule. Others will be played at Middletown, Steubenville, Columbiana, Smithfield and Cincinnati Taft.

Sulphur Springs, Pickerington, Arcanum and several other spots will give the foul rule a tryout.

The Ohio High School Basketball Coaches Assn. agreed to the test today as hundreds of the scholastic mentors moved in for the annual cage clinic at Ohio State University.

The board of directors, at Thursday night's late meeting, agreed to look into the feasibility of holding two all-star North-South basketball games instead of one next June 18 at Troy's Hobart Arena.

The 1959 event broke even financially, and the directors discussed whether two contests, one between Class AA players and the other involving Class A stars, would boost attendance. They'll decide at the January meeting.

The association decided that the clinic in connection with the all-star game would be jointly sponsored by the High School Athletic Assn. and the mentors, instead of by the Urbana group which handles the game. The coaches also are considering using all-star game profits to set up a college scholarship for one of the players.

W. C. McConnell, state high school commissioner, told the coaches that for the first time since the association was formed the state has less than 1,000 high schools. The figure dropped to 994 this year, 562 in Class A and 432 in Class AA, the latter big school group being boosted and the other depleted by a number of consolidations.

The directors took no action on a request that orange or yellow balls be approved for Ohio play, thus leaving only the leather-colored sphere in use; decided to charge non-members $5 and members $1 for attendance at the Troy clinic (association membership costs $2), and named five members to participate in the six-state Association for Health, Physical Education and Recreation program at Cleveland next March 30-April 2.

Representing the coaches will be Jack Gill of Wilmington, John Cabas of Salem, John Broski of Parma and Babe Shoup of Edgerton, with Ang Vaccaro of Steubenville as chairman of the round table discussion.

Rigney Gets New Contract

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Manager Bill Rigney, whose San Francisco Giants collapsed in the final week of the National League pennant race, gets one more chance to bring home a pennant winner.

Owner Horace Stoneham, in announcing Rigney's re-employment Thursday on a one-year contract believed to call for about $40,000, made it evident the graying, 41-year-old former infielder is on the spot.

Asked the significance of the one-year pact where Rigney twice previously has served under two-year contracts, Stoneham replied:

"It could work to the advantage or disadvantage of both sides. If we have a good season, Rigney will be in a position to ask for more. If we'd like to make a change after next year, it doesn't anchor the club with an additional year's contract. That's when the game becomes very brutal."

Rigney's Giants led the league by two games going into the final eight but lost seven of those to wind up in third place. Actually, Stoneham said, he discussed the one-year pact with Rigney on Sept. 20. At that time the club had started to skid, losing three straight to the Los Angeles club that went on to win the world championship.

Asked what caused the collapse, Rigney said, "in that series here, we just didn't hit."

He predicts the switch from 22,500-seat Seals Stadium with the prevailing jet stream to left field will help the club. They'll play next season in 45,000-seat Candlestick Park.

East Palestine Scores 20-0 Win Over Westgate

East Palestine's passing game was up to par and it led to a 20-0 victory over Westgate Thursday afternoon at East Palestine.

The young Bulldogs scored twice on long pass plays and the third score was set up on aerials. East Palestine tallied twice in the first half and once in the second half. Westgate had one touchdown called back when young Len Oliver raced 80 yards with a kickoff return, but a clipping penalty nullified the TD.

Coach Bill Ertitz's team threatened early in the game by marching to the 2-yard line, but couldn't cross the goal.

Westgate now shows a 2-2 mark for the season.

Executive Seeks Pro Grid Team For Buffalo

BUFFALO, N. Y. (AP)—Ralph C. Wilson, Detroit trucking and insurance executive, says he'll put up the $300,000 to $500,000 to field a professional football team here.

Wilson, who says he has a franchise in the budding American Football League and wants to put it in Buffalo, is in town for informal talks with city officials.

"All we have to do so far as I'm concerned is work out a satisfactory stadium lease," Wilson said. "I'm prepared to put up the $300,000 to $500,000 I estimate it would take to open a franchise here."

Former Ohio U. Star To Train With Nats

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Washington Senators today promoted outfielder Lamar Jacobs to their roster. He'll work out with the club at Orlando, Fla., next spring.

Jacobs, 21, a former Ohio University star, hit .313 for Ford of the Florida State League last season after signing a bonus contract with the Nats in June.

Pinehurst Golfer Is North-South Seniors Favorite

PINEHURST, N. C. (AP)—The North and South Seniors Golf Tournament entered its semifinals today with tall Tom Robbins of Pinehurst the favorite.

The 66-year-old Robbins, who won the U. S. Golf Assn. seniors last year and captured this tournament four years ago, was paired against Walter Pease, 56-year-old attorney from Plainfield, N. J.

The other semifinal match pitted Paul Dunkel of Hackensack, N. J., and W. E. Norvell Jr., of Signal Mountain, Tenn. The 18-hole finals will be played Saturday over the No. 2 championship course of the Pinehurst Country Club.

Robbins defeated P. C. Jarboe of Cape Elizabeth, Maine, 3 and 2, in the quarter-finals. Dunkel defeated Vincent Fitzgerald of New York City, 4 and 3; Norvell defeated Col. C. D. McAllister of Orlando, Fla., 3 and 2; and Pease eliminated George Frick of Pittsburgh, 4 and 3.

Cincy U. Homecoming Foe College Of Pacific
CINCINNATI (AP) — The University of Cincinnati (2-2-1) and College of the Pacific (1-3) resume a 10-year-old football rivalry here Saturday. A homecoming crowd of near 20,000 is expected.

Offensively, the game shapes up as a battle between the running of Dick Bass and the passing of Bob Gatiss for COP and the running of Ed Kovac and the passing of Jack Lee for Cincinnati.

UC also hoped to have the injured Fred Oblak back for at least part-time action. Oblak, a fine runner, has been out since being hurt in the second game of the campaign against Dayton.

Governor Is Making Tour Of State Schools
KENT, Ohio (AP) — Gov. Michael V. DiSalle says he is making a tour of state schools to determine "if we are keeping pace with the growth in education."

Paying a surprise visit to Kent State University Thursday, the governor said the physical aspects of the university are adequate for the time being, "but expansion will have to come."

"One of the things most frequently proposed for Kent is the addition of an engineering department," the governor said. "Such an addition might be desirable."

Air Force Starts Climb After Upset

By JACK CLARY
Associated Press Sports Writer
Air Force, its Cinderella status gone, starts the road back Friday night against UCLA while Auburn, solidly back in its winning ways after an opening game loss plays high-flying Miami (Fla.) to blast off another college football week-end.

The Flyboys were stunned by speedy Oregon last week, losing 20-3 for their first loss in 14 games. They won't have an easy mark in UCLA. The Uclans tied Purdue 0-0, lost in the last quarter to Pitt 25-21 and beat California 19-12 last week. Air Force now has a 3-1 mark.

Auburn, ranked seventh in the current Associated Press poll, has won three straight since being upset 3-0 by Tennessee. The Plainsmen have a defense the Hurricanes, (3-1) and quarterback Fran Curci will have a hard time solving.

The only game between members of the top 10 pits fourth-ranked Mississippi, with a 5-0 mark, and 10th rated Arkansas (4-1) at Memphis.

LSU (5-0) plays SEC neighbor Florida (3-1-1) to try and improve its 1-0 conference record and add to its 17 game winning string. Texas meets Southwest Conference rival Rice, a team that knocked the Longhorns from the unbeaten ranks last year. Texas, which will be without injured fullback Don Allen, is 5-0. Rice has tied two and lost two.

Georgia Tech (No. 9) also tries to right itself after last week's loss to Auburn, playing an SEC game with Tulane.

In the East, Syracuse (No. 6) sends its top-ranked defense team against West Virginia (3-2). The Big Orange hasn't lost in four games.

Eighth-ranked Penn State (5-0) invades Cleveland's Municipal Stadium for a game with Illinois (No. 13).

Second-ranked Northwestern travels to Notre Dame (2-2). Northwestern is undefeated with 4-0 and its Big Ten lead is not in jeopardy this week.

Mammoth Southern California, unbeaten at 4-0 and ranked fifth, faces Stanford's passing whiz Dick Norman and his big end Chris Burford, both leading the nation in passing and receiving, respectively. This is a Far West Five Conference game.

The day's television game (in color) is at Purdue where the Boilermakers meet Iowa at 3:15 p.m. EDT over NBC-TV. Another Big Ten highlight is the 50th Little Jug game between Michigan and Minnesota, both 1-3, at Minnesota.

Clemson defeated South Carolina 27-0 Thursday in the annual Big Thursday game in South Carolina to stay atop the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Several Face Sidelines In Big 10 Battles
By The Associated Press
If two losses mean you're out, several teams appear likely to be on the sidelines of the Big Ten football title race after Saturday's games.

Four teams with 1-1 records play each other while a fifth, Purdue, tries to avoid the discard heap against defending champion Iowa (1-2).

The conference schedule, in addition to Iowa's test as Purdue's homecoming foe, sends these 1-1 record holders against each other:

Indiana at Michigan State and Ohio State at Wisconsin.

Michigan (0-2) is at Minnesota (1-2) for the Little Brown Jug rivalry.

The undefeated leader, Northwestern (3-0), and second-place Illinois (2-1) have only prestige at stake in non-conference contests.

Northwestern, with passer - runner Bob Eickhoff ready for duty, resumes football relations at Notre Dame for the first time in 11 years and will be seeking a fifth straight victory of the season.

Illinois, with a healthy Mel Meyers-Johnny Counts combination back in action, travels to Cleveland for a shot at undefeated Penn State.

Mississippi Fined $1,000
BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Southeastern Conference Commissioner Bernie Moore has fined the University of Mississippi $1,000 for violating athletic recruiting rules.

It was the maximum penalty he can impose. He has no power as commissioner to put members on probation. This is up to the conference, itself.

Moore's action Thursday involved Elbert (Sonny) Holmes, Forest City, Ark., now a sophomore quarterback at the University of Arkansas.

Holmes was forced to quit Mississippi shortly after he signed a grant-in-aid in 1957, because Ole Miss Coach Johnny Vaughn has a rule against married players on his squad.

The incident involves a guardianship relationship between Holmes and Dr. Reuben Chrestman of Helena, Ark.

Moore said guardianship papers were taken out on Holmes and that the youth signed a grant-in-aid Dec. 7, 1957. Guardianship was granted Dec. 24, and Moore said the boy received Christmas gifts valued at about $100.

The commissioner said Holmes also was given the use of an automobile to attend the 1958 Sugar Bowl game. Other gifts worth from $5 to $10 were given Holmes from time to time, Moore said.

Moore said the guardianship arrangement was new to him and to the conference.

He said the word "guardian" as used in some conference forms refers to an arrangement based on some family connections or other ties "and I do not feel that this relationship... meets these requirements."

Mid-American Opponents Battle In Key Contests

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer
COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Ohio State's resurgent Buckeyes travel to Wisconsin for Saturday's Big Ten clash with the Badgers, but plenty of gridiron thrills await stay-at-home fans.

The Badger-Buck battle is a "lose and out" fray for both insofar as the Big Ten title chase is concerned. Just as big, on the national scene, is the Penn State vs. Illinois event Saturday afternoon in Cleveland's Municipal Stadium.

Penn State, 5-0 and rated eighth in the country, must get by the 13th-ranked Illini to stay up there. The latter, shutout winners over Ohio State, have a 3-1 mark.

The rugged Mid-American Conference could clear up a few things, or could develop into a down-to-the-wire race, in Saturday's contests. Miami, dominating the league four of the last five years, will be fighting for its life as the Redskins entertain Ohio University.

Miami carries a 1-1 loop record while Ohio U. is 2-0. Bowling Green topped the list with 3-0, goes against Kent State (2-1) at Kent. The latter lost to Ohio, defeated Miami, so anything can happen.

Should Bowling Green and Ohio U. win, the race probably would be decided Nov. 21 when they clash at Athens. If both lose, the race is wide open.

Here's the weekend slate for collegiate Ohioans, with all-games won-lost records:

Big Ten: Ohio State (2-2) at Wisconsin (3-1).

Mid-American: Bowling Green (4-0) at Kent State (3-1), Ohio University (4-0) at Miami (3-1), Western Michigan (2-3) at Toledo (2-3).

Ohio Conference: Wittenberg (2-2) at Capital (3-1), Mount Union (0-5) at Hiram (0-4), Kenyon (0-4) at Oberlin (2-2), Marietta (2-3) at Otterbein (4-1), Heidelberg (4-1) at Muskingum (4-1) (night).

Mid-Ohio League: Ashland (3-1-1) at Findlay (3-2), Bluffton (4-2) at Wilmington (0-4), Defiance (1-4) at Ohio Northern (2-3) (night).

Presidents' Conference: John Carroll (3-0) at Case Tech (1-2).

Non-conference: Youngstown (4-2) at Akron (3-2), Franklin & Marshall at Denison (1-3-1), St. Lawrence at Wooster (4-0-1), College of Pacific at Cincinnati (2-2-1), Ohio Wesleyan (4-1) at Wash. Xavier (3-3) at Dayton (1-4) (night), Western Reserve (2-1) at Buffalo, and Central State (2-2-1) at Tennessee A & I (night).

Tony Anthony Faces Hunter
By JACK HAND
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — Life is just one crisis after another for Tony Anthony. There is no middle ground. Either he is the "new" Anthony, striding toward a title, or he is the "old" Anthony, backsliding into the ranks of forgotten fighters.

Ernie Braca, who delivered a "fight or play" ultimatum to his fighter after a particularly poor performance against Jesse Bowdry in May, hopes the "new" Tony will be on display tonight against Billy Hunter of Detroit. Anthony is the favorite.

Although Hunter is unheralded, a TKO over Argentina's Alex Miteff in his most recent victory, proved he might be too much for the "old" Anthony. Hunter, a Detroit heavyweight stablemate of Sugar Ray Robinson, has a 13-6-2 record in 21 pro fights.

Anthony, national amateur champ in 1952 and an Olympic teammate of Floyd Patterson that same year, is coming up for his last shot at the big money. After the Bowdry defeat he went into drydock for three months. He came back to knock out Bob Toug and then staged one of his better performances in beating Alonzo Johnson, the Pittsburgh heavy who won a tight decision over Hunter earlier in the year.

Two years ago Anthony fought his way to a title match with Archie Moore in the light heavy division. He was stopped in seven. Switching to the heavies after that disaster, he won seven in a row before he bowed to Reuben Vargas last January. His record is 40-7-1 with 29 knockouts. He has been stopped five times.

Fish Electrocutted, Anglers Scoop 'Em Up
CYNTHIANA, Ky. (AP) — Shelton West and two fishing companions caught a mess of fish in the South Licking River but they aren't likely to use the same method again.

They were standing in the water when a high-voltage line snapped and dangled into the water. Their rubber boots protected them, but hundreds of fish were electrocuted.

The men waded ashore and later scooped up the fish.

Illini, Lions Meet Saturday At Cleveland

CLEVELAND (AP) — Illinois, leading defensive team in the Big Ten, will test the high-powered offense of undefeated Penn State in Municipal Stadium Saturday.

The game was scheduled in 1956 as part of a big exposition, celebrating the opening of the St. Lawrence Seaway. Plans for the exposition, which was to have included the Pan-American Games, fell through but the football game did not.

The teams are rated even, despite Penn State's five straight wins. By defeating Illinois, the Nittany Lions would take a big step toward a major bowl bid.

Illinois, with 3-1 over-all record, still is a strong contender for the Big Ten title. The Illini defeated Ohio State, Minnesota and Army after losing to Indiana.

Leading the Illinois defense is Bill Burrell, 210-pound guard and linebacker. He is credited with 63 tackles in four games, 12 of them against Ohio State.

Penn State, fifth nationally in total offense, is sure to give Burrell and his mates a rough afternoon. The Lions have averaged 370 yards and 27 points per game.

Quarterback Richie Lucas is a standout for the Lions. He is second in the nation in total offense with 729 yards and 13th in passing with 553 yards.

East Junior High Drops 16-6 Tilt To Central Eleven
East Junior dropped its second game in three starts when Steubenville Central walked off with a 16-6 victory Thursday afternoon at Patterson Field.

The young Crusaders confined all of their scoring to the first half and 16-0 at intermission. East Junior High bounced back to score in the fourth quarter when John Sparks crashed over from the one-yard line.

Later in the fourth period Tom Karit intercepted a pass and East Junior High marched to the Steubenville 15 where the drive ended.

A's Reach Stadium Agreement With City
KANSAS CITY (AP) — Tentative agreement for a four-year lease on Municipal Stadium has been reached by the Kansas City Athletics and the city council's baseball committee.

Under terms of the contract, the city would receive a flat $1,000 rental on the stadium, 5 per cent of paid admissions, 7 1/2 per cent of all concessions and an extra $24,000 if attendance tops a million.

Milam To Take Stand Today In Murder Retrial

CLEVELAND (AP)—Dallas E. Milam was to take the witness stand today in his first-degree murder retrial.

Milam's attorneys, who contend he was an unwilling participant in a robbery that preceded the fatal shooting of Police Lt. Edward G. Lentz, Thursday called Robert L. Lyons as a witness. Lyons is waiting to hear whether the U.S. Supreme Court will consider his appeal from a death sentence for shooting Lentz. He testified that he and James W. Davis got Milam to go with them Dec. 9, 1957, when they robbed Alonzo Buchanan in his home.

He said Davis told Milam they were going to Buchanan's home to get back money Buchanan had cheated them out of in a card game. Milam was told there would be no trouble, Lyons said.

When Davis pulled a gun at the Buchanan home, Milam was "scared white," Lyons added. But Lyons also testified that Milam had asked for the smaller of two pistols found by Lyons under a mattress at the home.

Under cross-examination by Asst. County Prosecutor Dennis J. McGuire, Lyons said Milam had helped tear up a bedspread with which to bind Buchanan and his wife.

Lt. Lentz was shot by Lyons, police said, when he stopped the car in which the trio had fled the Buchanan home. Davis is serving a life sentence.

Milam was convicted in a previous trial, but the appeals court ordered a new trial. The case is being heard by three common pleas judges.

Health Board Names Clerk

Howard Claypool, 1320 Riverview

St., chief clerk of the Ohio Power Co., was appointed clerk of the Board of Health at the meeting Thursday night at the board's office in City Hall.

Claypool will succeed Howard J. Kaufman, who retired earlier this year after 26 years as clerk. Mrs. Luella Bevan, secretary, had been serving as acting clerk since Kaufman's retirement.

Only routine business was transacted with E. R. Liebschner Jr., chairman, presiding.

Mrs. Bevan, secretary, reported 26 deaths, including 12 adult males, 13 adult females and one child, and 119 births with 62 males and 57 females. Of the total births, 61 were to East Liverpool parents, 23 to Wellsville, 11 to Chester and the remainder in the tri-state area.

Septimus Cook and John Owen, sanitarians, reported a total of 172 investigations, including 39 complaints, 41 general, 9 taverns, 7 restaurants and 13 farms with the remainder in miscellaneous calls.

Mrs. Jeannette Carpenter, public health nurse, reported 32 guidance visits and 23 guidance visits.

Besides Liebschner, other board members attending were Dr. J. Keith Rugh and C. Frank Dales along with Dr. E. G. Kuhlman, health commissioner, Mrs. Carpenter, Owen and Mrs. Bevan. Claypool also sat in.

The next meeting will be Nov. 19.

Vote Plans Set By Democrats

Midland Democratic Party candidates, headed by Burgess Eli Corak, party chairman, met to co-ordinate campaign plans Thursday evening in the Borough Building.

Present were councilmen, Board of Education members and precinct leaders.

Candidates were given reports from Harrisburg on the Beaver County tax assessment program and a complete breakdown of the county tax program as drawn up by the Pennsylvania Economy League, Corak said.

According to the league's reports, Midland is not the second highest taxed borough in the county, rather it is the lowest when compared in a ratio with others, he said.

Plans were made for candidates to talk to residents from door to door. The party's traditional general meeting or rally before an election will be held Nov. 1 with candidates, workers and the public invited. Rep. Frank M. Clark of the 25th Congressional District has been invited.

60 At Joint Event Of Service Clubs

Some 60 attended a joint meeting of the Midland Rotary Club, host, and the Lions Club Thursday evening at the Presbyterian Church.

William Moll was program chairman. Entertainment featured Nita Bailey, East Liverpool pianist, Lloyd Deffenbaugh, music supervisor at Lincoln High School, was song leader. Miss Sandra Sue Moll was accompanist and Rev. George H. Bohlender gave the invocation. Dinner was served by the Queen Esther Class of the church.

The Rotary Club will meet Thursday at 6:15 p. m. at Larry's Restaurant with Atty. Edwin Wallover, community service chairman, as program chairman.

The Lions Club will meet Nov. 5 for a "Ladies Night" and Harry Hulton will be program chairman. The Lions Board of Directors will meet Nov. 12.

Health-Safety Group To Be Given Reports

LISBON—The Columbiana County Health and Safety Council will meet Tuesday at 8 p. m. at the Agriculture Extension Service office, Mrs. Ralph Phillips of Salem, president, announced.

Reports of all standing committees, the health tent committee and the Ruritan Club school bus safety movement will be heard and a discussion will be held on serving chocolate milk in the schools. Dr. William A. Kolozsi of Salem will tell of the visit to the County Home.

All council members are expected to attend.

104 At Farmers Night Of Lisbon Kiwanians

LISBON—Some 104 members and guests attended the Kiwanis Club's annual Farmer's Night dinner at the American Legion home Thursday.

The Rev. C. P. Mitchell, pastor of the First English Church of Mansfield, was guest speaker. The Legion Quartet sang and William Frew Jr. led group singing, accompanied by Dr. C. S. Palmer at the piano.

A steak dinner was served by the American Legion auxiliary.

City Man Hurt And Fined In Police Scuffle

A Jethro man accused of putting up a battle when police took him into custody Thursday night on a 16-month-old charge of assault and battery drew two $25 fines today in Municipal Court.

William Baker, 36, of Leonard St. pleaded guilty before Judge George L. Brokaw on both counts—assault June 7, 1958, on Thomas Goyak, 325 Broadway, and resisting arrest at police headquarters last night.

Police said Baker was taken into custody on the old warrant at 8:15 by Patrolman William E. Nott. The resisting charge was filed at 8:25 by Nott and Patrolman R. B. Pyle. Police said Lt. Thomas Walker and Patrolman Paul Carter assisted.

Baker was treated at City Hospital at 8:45 for a laceration of the scalp. He told the attendants he was struck on the head with a blackjack.

Despite Baker's guilty plea, Judge Brokaw asked Goyak to explain the circumstances behind the old assault charge. Goyak testified Baker struck him as he walked out of a restaurant restroom, knocking out two teeth.

Meanwhile, a hearing is scheduled Saturday morning for two men injured Oct. 9 in a fight outside the Buckeye Diner at E. 3rd and Washington Sts. William Tynes, 38, of 1087 Monaca St., is accused of cutting with intent to wound and disorderly conduct by fighting. Galt Freeman, 23, of 257 Center St. is accused of fighting.

Motorist Forfeits

LISBON—Ray J. Perrino, 20, of R. D. 2 forfeited $15 bond Thursday in Mayor John Todd's court when he failed to appear on a charge of reckless operation. He was cited by the State Highway Patrol.

The sale of air conditioners in the United States jumped from 11,000 in 1940 to more than 1 1/2 million in 1958.

Dairymen! Here's your chance to ... prove to yourself that all dairy feeds are not alike

It's our special 2-bag guarantee. Just feed a complete dairy feed - mixed with 2 bags of Larro SUREMILK concentrate - to one of your cows. If you're not completely satisfied with the results, send your sales slip with a letter to General Mills, Dairy Feed Dept., Minneapolis 26, Minn. and the cost of the Larro SUREMILK concentrate will be refunded.

If you've been feeding with the idea that all dairy feeds are pretty much alike, here's our invitation to you: Just use 2 bags of Larro Suremilk concentrate to mix a dairy feed for one of your cows. Then if you're not satisfied send your sales slip with a letter to General Mills, Inc., Dairy Feed Dept., Minneapolis 26, Minnesota and the cost of the Larro Suremilk concentrate will be refunded.

LARRO SUREMILK concentrate supplies vital protein and energy nutrients, minerals and vitamins ... the important nutrients your cows need for peak milk production ... and greater return over feed cost. Stop in and get the details on the special 2-bag guarantee on LARRO SUREMILK concentrate. You'll be glad you did.

may be too late

If you have always liked the country, but aren't too keen on some of the inconveniences you find there, this may appeal to you. It's an older home surrounded by nice trees and lawn, on a good paved street, with 92 feet frontage. The total ground is approximately an acre, yet the home has gas heat and is on the city sewer. A little bit of redecorating will give you a $14,000 home. Priced at $11,000.

Maybe you have meant to build a nice three bedroom home with extra large rooms, built in kitchen, hardwood floors, attached garage, enormous closets, bath with fan and tub enclosure, in fact most of the features you read about - on an acre lot in Glenmoor. If arrangement suits you, you will love it. Reduced to $18,500

Ex-Diplomat Fathered Idea

Kennan's Symbol Of U.S. Dilemma In Red Dealings

By JAMES MARLOW

Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—George

F. Kennan would be just another ex-diplomat, lost in reverie, except that more than anyone he symbolizes in an ironic and dramatic way the American dilemma in dealing with the Soviet Union.

Twelve years ago he fathered an idea which has been American policy ever since: Prevent Soviet expansion by ringing her with military bases and alliances. This was the so-called containment policy.

It was followed rigidly by both the Truman and Eisenhower administrations, without basic change. And now this rigidity irks

Kennan who seems to be shying away from his brainchild and is calling for fresh thinking.

Where once Kennan was for stiff-arming the Soviets absolutely, now he is for making concessions to them in order to get concessions. The American dilemma simply comes down to this:

Is this the time for a change?

The world was different when Kennan had his idea in 1947, or, rather, the relative positions of the United States and the Soviet Union were different.

Then the United States had a monopoly on the atom bomb and was soon to have the hydrogen bomb. The Soviet Union had neither. The Soviets then were even considered backward. Kennan even said at the time that the Soviet Union, in relation to the West, was weak.

The story is far different now.

The Soviets have both the atomic and hydrogen bombs. It may be ahead of this country in missiles to deliver them. It is definitely years ahead of the United States in space development.

It has made astonishing progress in science, education, industry. It can no longer be considered weak. What did Kennan hope to accomplish with his plan?

By holding the Soviets tight, he thought, weaknesses might show up internally or changes for the better might occur. In one sense, changes for the better have occurred.

Stalin died within those 12 years. His successor, Premier

Nikita Khrushchev, has relaxed controls a bit in the Soviet Union, has called for peaceful coexistence, but at the same time made it plain the Soviet Union is conscious of its power.

So—while the United States 12 years ago was able to put pressure on the Soviet Union with impunity and without fear of disaster, this is no longer true. Moscow now has the power to apply pressure and make the Allies back up, as it showed by deliberately creating the Berlin crisis.

As he watched the changes oc-cure, Kennan began to talk in a new way: of making a deal with the Kremlin so both sides could pull back their troops in Europe;

of neutralizing Germany; of abolishing all nuclear weapons.

In short, he says, we are no longer strong enough to get our way without compromising with the Soviet Union.

He accuses the Eisenhower administration, which has acted as stiffly toward the Soviets as the Truman administration, of being

"stilted, cramped, and inflexible"

in its thinking.

He was a prophet once. Is he still one? To follow his thinking now would require changes in American policy as profound as those set in motion to carry out his containment idea.

For example: Putting the containment policy into operation—

the military bases and alliances—meant this country broke with its past, ended its isolation, and got up to its neck in the affairs of the rest of the world.

The country as a whole is forever uneasy about relations with the Soviets, wants some solutions, but is wary and hesitant about change.

Just because it is, the Soviets under Khrushchev have been able to take the initiative not only in dealing with the United States but in Communist relations with the rest of the world.

Kennan's old boss, former Secretary of State Dean Acheson, was and is for the status quo, as was his successor, the late Secretary of State John Foster Dulles.

Any move toward dropping Kennan's old ideas for his new ones will not be made quickly or easily.

This puts Kennan in the lonely position of looking like a prophet who changed his religion.

Parents Abandon 5 Young Children In Welfare Office

CLEVELAND (AP)—Five young

Cleveland children were abandoned Thursday in the County Welfare

Office by their parents, who were angered because they had not received their relief check.

Police found the mother, Mrs.

Leroy Henderson, after a 4½-hour search, but not the father.

Mrs. Henderson, taken to city jail, said the children were abandoned because there was no baby food in the house.

The children, ranging from 6-week-old twins to a 4-year-old boy, were taken to the County Receiving Home.

Welfare officials said the Hendersons came to the welfare office to complain that they had received no aid and were told that no checks could be expected until the father, employed sporadically since 1951, showed a better attendance record in the working training program.

In the program, relief applicants prove good faith and are retrained by working for pay 17 days of every month on jobs assigned to them by welfare officials.
